Hi,

I am one of the mum from Indian community.

I had my inlaws to help when I had my bub but instead of helping me they had given me lot of hassels.

They were here for five months and I was almost went to dipression stage because of them. They never help me with my baby. Never allowed my husband to help me woth baby. In our community we are helpless to stop our inlaws to come our house so there should be some facilities were daughter in laws in indian community can stop there inlaws visa anonymously.

This problem of around 80% Indian daughter in laws

Kind Regards,
