(Paper No. 6)

*58 LOCAL GOVERNMENT—PROPOSED TARGET FOR THE IDEAL NUMBER OF LOCAL COUNCILS IN NEW SOUTH WALES—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Local Government—

(1)

- (a) Does the Government have a proposed target for the ideal number of local councils in New South Wales?
- (b) If so, what is that number and how was it determined?

Answer—

The Government does not have a proposed target for the number of councils in NSW. It recognises that a range of social, economic and regional issues need to be considered when determining the appropriate size and number of councils in NSW. That is why we have not adopted a one size fits all approach to this important issue. Instead, we have invested in a detailed review of local councils, conducted by the Independent Local Government Review Panel, at the request of the local government sector.

The Independent Local Government Review Panel concluded that NSW could not sustain 152 councils and it made specific recommendations for individual councils and regions, based on its findings. The Government is now asking councils to consider these options and is providing generous support to those who wish to pursue a voluntary merger with their neighbours to achieve that outcome.

*59 LOCAL GOVERNMENT—POSSIBLE AMALGAMATION OF LOCAL COUNCILS—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Local Government—

(1) By what date will local councils know whether they are to be amalgamated with another council?

Answer—

The NSW Government is supporting councils as part of the Fit for the Future program, with up to $258 million in financial support. Councils have been working with their communities in compiling their submissions and the Government has provided assistance with facilitators and subsidised business case studies to ensure that community members are well informed of the potential benefits and costs of each proposal.

Councils' Fit for the Future proposals will be submitted by 30 June 2015 and will be assessed in the following months by the Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal.

*60 LOCAL GOVERNMENT—BUDGET FOR COUNCIL AMALGAMATIONS—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Local Government—

- (1) What is the budget for the research and assessment being conducted by the Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal into council amalgamations?
- (2) What amount is being allocated from the budget of the Office for Local Government?

Answer—

The Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal (IPART) is not conducting research or assessment into council amalgamations.

The Government has appointed IPART as the Expert Panel to assess local government Fit for the Future proposals, in accordance with established methodology. This process is being funded through the Fit for the Future budget allocation and will ensure a rigorous, transparent and fair assessment of each proposal.

*61 LOCAL GOVERNMENT—BUDGET FOR INDEPENDENT PRICING AND REGULATORY TRIBUNAL'S STUDY OF COUNCIL AMALGAMATIONS—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Local Government—

- (1) How much has been spent to date for the Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal's study of council amalgamations?

Answer—

The Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal is not conducting a study of council amalgamations. Therefore, no funds have been expended on this purpose.

- *62 LOCAL GOVERNMENT—MINIMUM POPULATION SIZES FOR AMALGAMATED COUNCILS—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Local Government—

- (a) Does the Government have minimum population sizes that it is seeking to achieve in metropolitan, regional and rural areas for any amalgamated councils?
(b) If so, what are these population sizes?

Answer—

No

- *63 LOCAL GOVERNMENT—PROCESS OF APPROVAL FOR INDEPENDENT PRICING AND REGULATORY TRIBUNAL STUDY MODEL—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Local Government—

- (1) What process was used by the Office of Local Government to approve the Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal study model?
(2) Who was involved in the decision?

Answer—

The Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal has been appointed by the NSW Government as the Expert Panel to assess local government Fit for the Future proposals, in accordance with the established methodology.

The methodology is based on the recommendations from Treasury Corporation's analysis of local government, the Infrastructure Audit of NSW Councils, and the Independent Local Government Review Panel. Each of these reviews involved extensive engagement with the local government sector.

The assessment methodology was finalised after a final period of consultation with the sector.

- *64 LOCAL GOVERNMENT—PROPOSED ADMINISTRATORS FOR AMALGAMATED COUNCILS—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Local Government—

- (a) Is it proposed to appoint administrators to any amalgamated councils?
(b) If so, at what point would this occur?
(c) For how long would it be expected that the administrator would be appointed?

Answer—

The NSW Government is providing generous support for councils who wish to undertake voluntary mergers with their neighbours. An important part of this process is transition planning to ensure the effective and efficient establishment of any new council entity.

Councils that choose to merge voluntarily will be working with the Office of Local Government to prepare detailed transition plans. These plans will consider how best to undertake the merger process, and will include opportunities for elected representatives to be involved in the transition phase.

The Government has set aside $13 million in additional funding to assist with this process.

*65 LOCAL GOVERNMENT—FUTURE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ELECTIONS—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Local Government—

(1) When do you expect local government elections to next take place?

Answer—

Section 287 of the Local Government Act 1993 requires council elections to be held on the second Saturday of September in every fourth year after 2008. On this basis, the next local government elections are due to be held on 10 September 2016.

*66 LOCAL GOVERNMENT—NEWLY AMALGAMATED COUNCILS AND POTENTIAL FOR WARDS—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Local Government—

(1) Will newly amalgamated councils have wards?

Answer—

The question of wards would be determined as part of transitional arrangements for a council that undertook a merger.

*67 LOCAL GOVERNMENT—ELECTION OF MAYORS IN NEWLY AMALGAMATED COUNCILS—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Local Government—

(1)

(a) Will the mayor of a newly amalgamated council be elected by popular vote, or by the vote of councillors?

(b) For what period will they be elected?

Answer—

It is a matter for each council to determine how its Mayor is elected. Councils will receive support and assistance from the NSW Government to prepare detailed transition plans. These plans will address the proposed governance arrangements for the new council, including the election of the Mayor.

*68 LOCAL GOVERNMENT—EXPECTED COST OF AMALGAMATING COUNCILS—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Local Government—

(1) How much does the Government expect the amalgamation of councils to cost and what would these costs involve?

(2) How did the Office of Local Government calculate these costs? What variables were involved?

Answer—

The Government has supported councils that are considering a voluntary merger with generous funding to undertake merger business case studies. These studies identify the potential costs and benefits of the process and have helped to inform community consultation on the best options for local government in their area.

The Government will provide direct funding to support the establishment of a new council.

*69 LOCAL GOVERNMENT—FIT FOR FUTURE REVIEW PROCESS—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Local Government—

(1) What councils have written to either yourself or the Office of Local Government expressing concerns about the 'Fit for the Future' review process?

Answer—

Over the last four years, individual councils and local government sector peak bodies have been engaged in a constructive discussion on local government reform. All 152 councils in NSW have expressed their views and these have informed the Fit for the Future program.

The NSW Government will continue to work collaboratively with the local government sector to ensure that councils in NSW are fit for the future.

*70 ATTORNEY GENERAL—DISTRICT COURT JUDGE JOHN HATZISTERGOS' ROLE IN REVIEWING THE BAIL ACT—Mr Shoebridge asked the Minister for Ageing, Minister for Disability Services, and Minister for Multiculturalism representing the Attorney General—

- (1)
 - (a) From 10 October 2014 to date, has District Court Judge John Hatzistergos received any remuneration for his ongoing review of the NSW Bail Act?
 - (b) If so, what are the remuneration arrangements?
- (2) From 10 October 2014 to date, has District Court Judge John Hatzistergos performed any work on reviewing the NSW Bail Act?
- (3) When is the next report by District Court Judge John Hatzistergos due in his ongoing monitoring of the NSW Bail Act?

Answer—

I am advised by the Department of Justice that since the appointment of Judge John Hatzistergos to undertake the New South Wales Bail Act review, arrangements for his remuneration have been in line with standard Government processes.

The final review of the Bail Act is due to be submitted by Judge Hatzistergos to the Government shortly.

*72 ENVIRONMENT—RINDEAN QUARRY—Dr Faruqi asked the Minister for Ageing, Minister for Disability Services, and Minister for Multiculturalism representing the Minister for the Environment, Minister for Heritage, and Assistant Minister for Planning—

- (1)
 - (a) Is there any Environmental Protection Authority (EPA) recommendation for the minimum distance between residential premises and quarrying activity?
 - (b) If so, what is this guidance and is it mandatory or recommended?
 - (c) If not, given that many other states have minimum distances, why does New South Wales not?
- (2) Does the EPA have any health or environmental concerns about the Rindean Quarry at Somersby given that it is located less than 100 metres from residential premises?
- (3)

- (a) Did the EPA conduct any independent assessment of the air quality report provided by the proponent of the Rindean Quarry during the planning proposal in 2014?
- (b) Did the EPA have any concerns that Mangrove Mountain was used as a weather station for air quality data, given its very different topography to the area proposed for the quarry?
- (4)
- (a) Has the EPA received any complaints about the Rindean Quarry?
- (b) If so, how many?
- (c) what was the conclusion of any investigations?
- (5) Is there any air quality monitoring occurring around the Rindean Quarry?

Answer—

- (1)
- (a) The NSW Environment Protection Authority (EPA) does not apply arbitrary minimum set back distances between residential premises and quarrying activities.
- (b) The NSW Environment Protection Authority (EPA) does not apply arbitrary minimum set back distances between residential premises and quarrying activities.
- (c) Air quality impacts on residential premises are quantified and assessed in accordance with the Approved Methods for the Modelling and Assessment of Air Pollutants in New South Wales ('Approved Methods'). Modelling provides the most scientifically robust methodology to clearly predict air quality impacts and is a better approach than arbitrary buffers that may not adequately consider local features.
- (2) The original Air Quality Assessment for Rindean Quarry was determined by the EPA to be inadequate. A revised Air Quality Assessment conducted in accordance with the requirements of the Approved Methods was submitted. The EPA reviewed the revised assessment and determined that the predicted air quality impacts were well below the relevant criteria for particulates. Based on this assessment the EPA is satisfied that the proposed development is capable of operating without unreasonable impacts on health or the environment.
- (3)
- (a) Yes, the EPA conducted an independent assessment of the 'Rindean Sands Quarry -Air Quality Assessment'. The EPA found that the assessment had been conducted in accordance with the requirements of the Approved Methods.
- (b) The EPA was satisfied with the approach used. It is unusual to have exact weather data for a proposed development site. The modelling approach used weather data from the two closest weather stations, being the Mangrove Mountain and Gosford Bureau of Meteorology sites. This data was fed into a model along with important features such as local terrain, in generating likely weather data for the site. The EPA has advised this approach is consistent with the requirements of the Approved Methods.
- (4)
- (a) Rindean Quarry has not been operational since the surrender of its original Environment Protection Licence in early 2004. The EPA has not received any complaints regarding operational activities at Rindean Quarry in recent times.
- (b) Rindean Quarry has not been operational since the surrender of its original Environment Protection Licence in early 2004. The EPA has not received any complaints regarding operational activities at Rindean Quarry in recent times.
- (c) The EPA understands that Gosford Council conducted an investigation in 2008 into alleged dumping of building and demolition waste at the site, however the outcome of that investigation is not known.
- (5) The EPA has placed strict, legally enforceable, conditions on the recently issued Environment Protection Licence for Rindean Quarry. The Licensee is required to have two state of the art air quality monitors installed at strategic locations approved by the EPA. These locations consider prevailing weather conditions and the proximity of the quarry to nearby residential premises. This monitoring will be required to commence prior to operations at the quarry commencing.

 (4) What is Pearson Australia's exact role in the marking process for NAPLAN in New South Wales in 2015?
 (a) Will any person or persons employed by Pearson Australia be allowed on New South Wales public school grounds to enable them to carry out their duties in relation to NAPLAN?
 (b) If so, what will those duties consist of?

Answer—

(1) to (5)

Pearson Australia was selected to facilitate the marking of NAPLAN tests in New South Wales through a competitive tender process, which was contested in 2011.

The term of the agreement was extended with Pearson to deliver NAPLAN services for 2015. The extension of the contract was approved to ensure continuity of service to schools in NSW.

Pearson Australia's role in the marking process is to capture and mark student test responses, deliver marking centre services and to score student responses for reporting.

Under contract there is no need for persons employed by Pearson to be on New South Wales Public Schools grounds in order to carry out their duties in relation to delivery of the 2015 NAPLAN, other than contracted couriers for the delivery and pick up of NAPLAN test materials.

*91 ENVIRONMENT—MANGROVE MOUNTAIN LANDFILL—Dr Faruqi asked the Minister for Ageing, Minister for Disability Services, and Minister for Multiculturalism representing the Minister for the Environment, Minister for Heritage, and Assistant Minister for Planning—

(1) How many complaints has the Environment Protection Agency (EPA) received regarding the Mangrove Mountain Landfill in the last ten years?

Answer—

- (b) If so:
 - (i) how many tonnes of shark fin have been imported each year over the last ten years?
 - (ii) what was their origin?
- (c) If not, why not?

Answer—

(1) and (2) NSW Trade and Investment does not collect statistics on goods and services exported from or imported into NSW. I am advised that this data is assembled by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) from data that is sourced from the Australian Customs and Border Protection Service

(Customs). None of the international customs or trade classification systems list shark fins as a specific item. Any shark fin exports or imports would be listed under a broader category and so it is not possible to identify shark fin exports and imports from existing data sources.

*94 PRIMARY INDUSTRIES—SHARK FIN HARVESTING IN NEW SOUTH WALES—Dr Faruqi asked the Minister for Primary Industries, and Minister for Lands and Water—

- (a) Does the Department of Primary Industries keep any statistics on the amount of shark fin harvested by commercial fishers in New South Wales?

- (a) Does the Department of Primary Industries keep any statistics on the amount of shark fin exported from New South Wales overseas?
- (b) If so, how many tonnes of shark fin has been exported each year over the last ten years?
- (c) If not, why not?

Answer—

(1)

- (a) No.
- (b) -
- (c) The Department of Primary Industries maintains a catch and effort record system to monitor landings of target and by-product species, and effort deployed in each of the State's commercial fisheries. This information is used to inform stock assessment and other scientific evaluation of fisheries resources in NSW. Commercial fishers are required by law to submit catch and effort records to report, among other things, the validated landed weight per species of 'fish' (including sharks). The landed weight may be the weight of a 'fish' after being processed (for example headed and gutted, filleted etc.) and in this case the manner in which the 'fish' is processed is included in the record. The landed weight of a shark therefore may be in a number of processed forms and is then converted to a whole weight (using standard conversion factors) for the purposes monitoring stock sustainability.

- (a) No.
- (b) -
- (c) The export of fish and fish products for human consumption is regulated by the Export Control Act 1982 and regulations and orders made under this Act. The Department of Agriculture is the Commonwealth Government agency responsible for the administration of this Act.

This policy directive is available online at: http://www0.health.nsw.gov.au/policies/pd2007/PD2007_084.html

The Public Health Unit is not aware of any other cases of MRSA related to livestock identified in the Murrumbidgee Local Health District in the last four years.

*101 PRIMARY INDUSTRIES—METHICILLIN RESISTANT STAPHYLOCOCCUS AUREUS—Dr Faruqi asked the Minister for Primary Industries, and Minister for Lands and Water—

Private veterinarians or non-government researchers may have detected the occurrence of MRSA on other farms, however MRSA is not a notifiable disease in animals.
- (b) In 2014, the details of the research where MRSA was detected in a NSW pig herd were published in Volume 69 of the Journal of Antimicrobial Chemotherapy, pages 1426-1428. The department is aware from a study of Australian veterinarians that MRSA is likely to be present in a range of animal species in NSW. The study, "Carriage of methicillin-resistant Staphylococcus aureus by veterinarians in Australia", authored by Jordan, D., J. Simon, S. Fury, S. Moss, P. Giffard, M. Maiwald, P. Southwell, M.D. Barton, J.E. Axon, S. Morris, and D.J. Trott, was published in the Australian Veterinary Journal, 2011, edition 89: p. 152-159. *110 LANDS AND WATER, PRIMARY INDUSTRIES—ASIAN BLACK SPINED TOADS—Mr Veitch asked the Minister for Primary Industries, and Minister for Lands and Water—

- (a) Has the Minister for Primary Industries and Minister for Lands and Water received any briefings on the recent discovery in northern Sydney of Asian black-spined toads?
- (b) If so:
 - (i) When was the Minister for Primary Industries and Minister for Lands and Water first informed?
 - (ii) What are the estimated numbers of the toad population?
 - (iii) What is estimated location and geographical spread of the toad population?

(2) What action has been taken to ensure no breeding colonies have been established?

Answer—

(1)

- (a) No. The previous Minister for Primary Industries was advised of the detection on 4 March 2015.
- (b)
 - (i) Refer to answer 1(a) above.
 - (ii) Zero – no further specimens have been found and the original specimen has been euthanized.
 - (iii) Refer to answer to 1(b)(ii) above.

(2) On 3 March 2015, Taronga Zoo notified the Department of Primary Industries (DPI) about a single female Asian black-spined toad that was captured on 2 March 2015 in the Sydney suburb of Belrose. The toad was delivered to Taronga Zoo on 3 March 2015 by local council staff who had received it from staff of the veterinary clinic where the toad was found (in the clinic garden). Taronga Zoo staff confirmed that the specimen was an Asian black-spined toad, euthanized it and conducted a necropsy. The female toad was carrying over 1000 (unfertilised) eggs. DPI notified the National Invasive Plants and Animals Committee secretariat (based in the Commonwealth Department of Agriculture) on 3 March 2015. DPI requested that National Parks and Wildlife Service investigate further to determine the likelihood of whether the toad was a lone 'hitchhiker' (a shipping container from Singapore had recently been delivered to a property adjacent to where the toad was found) or part of a population. A desktop analysis was conducted to determine potential habitat and breeding sites in backyards and bushland within the vicinity and the finder of the toad and immediate neighbours were contacted. The first night survey of the neighbourhood was conducted on 5 March 2015. There has been follow-up contact with the local council and Greater Sydney Local Land Services and information has been distributed to local residents. No sign of other Asian black-spined toads have been found. This is not the first case of Asian black-spined toads breaching the national border, but is a good example of collaboration between the general public and local and State government agencies to detect and manage new incursions, in keeping with a key principle of the NSW Biosecurity Strategy 2013-2021.

*123 LOCAL GOVERNMENT—PROPOSED GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE FOR AMALGAMATED COUNCILS—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Local Government—

- (1) What governance structure is proposed for amalgamated councils following the 'Fit for the Future' process, until elections are eventually held for the new council?
- (2) What role will there be for current mayors and general managers?
- (3)
 - (a) Will administrators be appointed?
 - (b) If so, how will they be selected?

Answer—

The NSW Government is providing generous support for councils who wish to undertake voluntary mergers with their neighbours. An important part of this process is transition planning to ensure the effective and efficient establishment of any new council entity.

Councils that choose to merge voluntarily will be working with the Office of Local Government to prepare detailed transition plans. These plans will consider how best to undertake the merger process, and will include opportunities for elected representatives to be involved in the transition phase.

The Government has set aside $13 million in additional funding to assist with this process.

*124 INNOVATION AND BETTER REGULATION—MONITORING THE IMPACT OF ASBESTOS AND CHIPS OF PAINT CONTAINING LEAD—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Ageing, Minister for Disability Services, and Minister for Multiculturalism representing the Minister for Innovation and Better Regulation—

- (1) How will the Government monitor the impact on consumers from asbestos and chips of paint containing lead, as a consequence of unlicensed painters now being able to enter into contracts for internal paintwork valued at below $5,000?

Answer—

Low value work has always been excluded from the requirements of the Home Building Act by means of a threshold. The previous Labor Government amended the Home Building Act in 2004 to increase the threshold for work (other than specialist work) requiring a licence from $200 to $1,000.

The NSW Government's decision to increase the threshold to $5,000 in 2014 was adopted in response to recommendations made by the Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal (IPART). This new threshold better aligns NSW with applicable thresholds in Victoria ($5,000) and Queensland ($3,300).

Recent changes to the scope of work regulated under the Home Building Act 1989 have not altered the work health and safety (WHS) obligations of Persons Conducting a Business or Undertaking (PCBUs). Every PCBU, whether they or their workers are required to hold trade licences or not, continues to be subject to obligations to carry out work safely.

The health and safety obligations of traders to ensure safe work practices (including managing risks of exposure to hazardous substances such as asbestos and lead) are stringently regulated by the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 and are administered by my colleague the Hon Dominic Perrottet MP, Minister for Finance, Services and Property.

These laws include general 'primary duty of care' obligations that PCBUs must not put people's health and safety at risk from their work, and must ensure employees have adequate information, training, instruction or supervision. The law also contains specific obligations for traders in respect of lead risk work and work involving asbestos, including training obligations and licensing of certain work involving asbestos.

Any consumer in NSW with concerns or a complaint regarding services provided by a trader is encouraged to contact NSW Fair Trading on 13 32 20 to request assistance or lodge a complaint online at the Fair Trading website (www.fairtrading.nsw.gov.au).

*125 INNOVATION AND BETTER REGULATION—ASSESSMENT OF POTENTIAL IMPACT OF ASBESTOS AND CHIPS OF PAINT CONTAINING LEAD—Mr Primrose asked the Minister for Ageing, Minister for Disability Services, and Minister for Multiculturalism representing the Minister for Innovation and Better Regulation—

- (1) What assessments have been undertaken of the potential impact on consumers from asbestos and chips of paint containing lead, as a consequence of unlicensed painters now being able to enter into contracts for internal paintwork valued at below $5,000?

Answer—

Low value work has always been excluded from the requirements of the Home Building Act by means of a threshold. The previous Labor Government amended the Home Building Act in 2004 to increase the threshold for work (other than specialist work) requiring a licence from $200 to $1,000.

Roads and Maritime Services initiated the telephone poll as part of the evaluation of community engagement processes for the Ellerton Drive Extension. The cost of the poll and analysis of results forms part of the total project cost.

The telephone poll was designed by survey experts from Jetty Research, in consultation with Roads and Maritime Services, and includes questions seeking views about the proposal. A report on the results will be developed by Jetty Research and published later in 2015.

*130 PLANNING—OPERATIONAL NOISE AND VIBRATION REVIEW—Dr Faruqi asked the Minister for Ageing, Minister for Disability Services, and Minister for Multiculturalism representing the Minister for Planning—

Is the ^(a)Minister for Planning aware of an independent audit of the Operational Noise and Vibration Review (ONVR) by Dr John L Goldberg, a former Senior Principal Research Scientist with the Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organisation (CSIRO) National Measurement Laboratory, Acoustics and Vibration section, published in the Monthly Chronicle, Volume 20, number 2, 2015?

Has the ^(b)Department of Planning and Environment investigated Dr Goldberg's concerns that the noise mitigation measures within the ONVR will be largely ineffective?

If so, ^(c)what was the conclusion from that investigation?

Does the ^(a)ONVR suggest that as time progresses, the noise impact from rail freight movements will be less even though the number of movements will increase because of the Epping to Thornleigh Third Track?

If so, ^(b)on what basis is that conclusion drawn?

Answer—

(1) Dr Goldberg has not raised any concerns with the Department of Planning and Environment in relation to the noise mitigation measures proposed under the Operational Noise and Vibration Review- January 2015.

(2) The Operational Noise and Vibration Review predicts that noise impacts will increase as a result of the ETTT, and the Review proposes a range of measures to mitigate additional noise impacts. As a result of the proposed measures, noise levels in the operational scenario for the ETTT will be within acceptable limits set by noise guidelines. This has been independently verified by a noise and vibration specialist, namely Renzo Tonin and Associates.

- (2) The NSW Department of Education and Communities is not currently investigating AI Noori Muslim School. The NSW Department of Education and Communities commissioned an audit of Rissalah College in June 2014 to ensure the school has compliant practices in place. This independent audit found that Rissalah College was compliant with the not-for-profit funding requirements in 2014. The Board of Studies, Teaching and Educational Standards (BOSTES) is currently assessing the application for renewal of registration of AI Noori Muslim School, Greenacre. The period of registration of the school was extended to the end of 2015 to allow the school to address the BOSTES' concerns about the governance of the school. The BOSTES is not currently investigating any concerns in relation to Rissalah College, Lakemba.

 - (i) 11 September 2014
 - (ii) The Department of Primary Industries Instrument of Decision in relation to this matter states:
 Clause 2.4.4 d) iii) of the Standards for Exhibiting Bottle-nosed Dolphins (Tursiops truncatus) in New South Wales published in April 1994 is varied in its application to Pet Porpoise Pool Pty Ltd's use of the Discovery Stadium Show Pool as a second primary dolphin pool for the exhibition of Indo-Pacific Bottle-nosed Dolphin Tursiops aduncus at Dolphin Marine Magic (licensed animal display establishment L00002) as follows:

 - The dolphin species kept at Dolphin Marine Magic is on average 80% the size of a larger species Tursiops truncatus that the pool dimensional requirements in the Dolphin Standards were written to cater for.
 - The current depth and volume of the Show Pool are approximately 80% to 85% of the requirements for a second primary pool.
 - (iv) No.
- (2)

 - (c) The Department based its assessments on the following:

Main Primary Dolphin Pool: surveys of the pool volume and surface area conducted by a consultant surveyor.

Dolphin Isolation Pool: approved construction plans and independent on-site survey by an inspector.
- (3)

 - (b) Yes, due to a variation granted to the standard regarding the depth and volume of a second primary dolphin pool.

- (4)
- (a) The dolphin standards require that dolphins have access to appropriate total pool space. This can be achieved by linking pools so that the dolphins can move between them.
 - (b) No. The standards relating to holding pools allow for a holding pool to be a netted section of a primary pool.
 - (c)
 - (i) When the gate is shut it creates a temporary netted holding pool within the main primary pool, which the dolphin standards allow for. The dolphins have free access to the whole main primary pool volume when the gate is open.
 - (ii) No.
- (5)
- (a) Yes. Dolphin Marine Magic has a compliant dolphin isolation pool.
 - (b) Dolphin Marine Magic's dolphin isolation pool operates independently of other dolphin pools. It is normally used to exhibit seals.

 - (b) No

*180 TRANSPORT AND INFRASTRUCTURE—TRACKWORK—Dr Faruqi asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Transport and Infrastructure—

(1)

- (a) Has there been any analysis of the feasibility of conducting track work on the Sydney Trains network at night instead of the weekend?
- (b) If so:
 - (i) when was that analysis undertaken?
 - (ii) what was the conclusion of that analysis?
 - (iii) was any cost estimate of the two options undertaken
 - (iv) if so, what was it?

Answer—

I am advised:

Sydney Trains already conducts a significant amount of trackwork at night, utilising times on the network when limited trains operate.

Sydney Trains continues to seek to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of different types of trackwork operations. However, not all types of trackwork are suitable to be undertaken at night.

*182 TRANSPORT AND INFRASTRUCTURE—LIGHT RAIL PROJECT—Revd Mr Nile asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Transport and Infrastructure—

- (a) What are the Government's plans for consultation with citizens, commuters and community organisations concerning the Light Rail Project?
- (b) How will this consultation shape the Light Rail Project?

(2) What safety precautions will be undertaken to keep pedestrians and commuters safe whilst light rail is being developed?

(3) Will the Opal Card incorporate light rail use?

(4) How will light rail cater for passengers with a disability?

- (6) What changes will there be to ensure minimal inconveniences for existing commuter parking and facilities?
- (7) How is the project planning allowing for future expansion?
- (8) How much will the Light Rail Project cost?
- (9) What are the benefits of the Light Rail Project?

Answer—

I am advised:

The NSW Government is committed to delivering light rail in the Sydney CBD, Newcastle and Parramatta.

Light Rail operates as part of a wider transport network providing a seamless interchange between all transport modes and supporting the growing needs of the community.

A key priority of this Government is to deliver light rail projects that are safe and accessible, with modern, clean, comfortable and efficient vehicles.

The new CBD and South East Light Rail project and those currently being planned for Parramatta Light Rail and Newcastle Light Rail will be fully compliant with all required accessibility standards including the Disability Discrimination Act 1992.

Platforms will be designed to be the same height as the floors of the light rail vehicles so that both prams and wheelchairs can move on and off services seamlessly and without the need to use on-board access ramps.

Community consultation continues to play an important role throughout the planning and delivery of all light rail projects.

*190 ROADS, MARITIME AND FREIGHT—DEVIATION OF THE PACIFIC HIGHWAY EAST OF GRAFTON, EFFECT ON THE COASTAL EMU—Ms Sharpe asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council—

- (1) Is the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight aware that the deviation of the Pacific Highway east of Grafton proposed by Roads and Maritime Services will bisect the habitat of an endangered population of the Coastal Emu and as stated in the Agency's Fact Sheet have "the potential to create a barrier for emus accessing wetland and floodplain habitat"?

- (3) Will the Minister intervene and withdraw approval of the Agency's preferred route and support the alternative route following the existing highway corridor on the Western boundary of the endangered Coastal Emu population?

Answer—

I am advised:

After 10 years of investigations and assessments of various route alignments for the new highway, including extensive community and stakeholder consultation, Roads and Maritime Services obtained approval from the NSW Minister for Planning and the Federal Minister for the Environment mid-2014, for a route east of Grafton between Glenugie and Tyndale.

Roads and Maritime is designing and building connectivity measures and exclusion fencing in areas of highest emu activity along the new alignment before major work starts to allow emus to become accustomed to using the gaps.

The location and design of emu connectivity structures were developed in consultation with the Environment Protection Authority (EPA). Roads and Maritime will continue to consult with the EPA in the design and location for emu connectivity structures as per the project Conditions of Approval.

Permanent connectivity structures and fencing are included in the overall design of the project.

*194 ENVIRONMENT, HERITAGE—DEVIATION OF THE PACIFIC HIGHWAY EAST OF GRAFTON, EFFECT ON THE COASTAL EMU—Ms Sharpe asked the Minister for Ageing, Minister for Disability Services, and Minister for Multiculturalism representing the Minister for the Environment, Minister for Heritage, and Assistant Minister for Planning—

- (1) Is the Minister for the Environment, Minister for Heritage, and Assistant Minister for Planning aware that the deviation of the Pacific Highway east of Grafton proposed by Roads and Maritime Services will bisect the habitat of an endangered population of the Coastal Emu and as stated in the Agency's Fact Sheet have "the potential to create a barrier for emus accessing wetland and floodplain habitat"?

Answer—

I am advised as follows:

- (1) I am aware that the new road will affect the western margin of the Coastal Emu population's known habitat.
- (2) The Environment Protection Authority and Office of Environment and Heritage have provided expert advice to assist with the assessment of the upgrade project by the Department of Planning and Environment. A key focus of the assessment has been to mitigate impacts to the Emu population and its movements. Research and monitoring is ongoing and will be used to refine the ameliorative measures prior to construction of the highway upgrade.
- (3) The assessment and approval of the project is the responsibility of the Minister for Planning. The Minister for the Environment does not have an approval or concurrence role.

*195 PLANNING—DEVIATION OF THE PACIFIC HIGHWAY EAST OF GRAFTON, EFFECT ON THE COASTAL EMU—Ms Sharpe asked the Minister for Ageing, Minister for Disability Services, and Minister for Multiculturalism representing the Minister for Planning—

- (1) Is the Minister for Planning aware that the deviation of the Pacific Highway east of Grafton proposed by Roads and Maritime Services will bisect the habitat of an endangered population of the Coastal Emu and as stated in the Agency's Fact Sheet have "the potential to create a barrier for emus accessing wetland and floodplain habitat"?

- (3) Will the Minister intervene and withdraw approval of the Agency's preferred route and support the alternative route following the existing highway corridor on the Western boundary of the endangered Coastal Emu population?

Answer—

I am advised that: The Woolgoolga to Ballina Pacific Highway Upgrade alignment to the east of Grafton traverses Coastal Emu habitat between Pillar Valley and Shark Creek. The upgrade approval requires potential impacts to the Coastal Emu to be addressed, including through (1) a Connectivity Strategy, (2) a Coastal Emu Management Plan, and (3) a Construction Flora and Fauna Management Plan

In determining to issue approval, the Department of Planning and Environment undertook a comprehensive assessment of the social, economic and environmental impacts of the Woolgoolga to Ballina Pacific Highway Upgrade. The Department of Planning and Environment also engaged an independent expert to review the biodiversity assessment, including the Coastal Emu Management Plan, and relevant public submissions on this matter.

The independent expert concluded the alignment between Pillar Valley and Shark Creek could be constructed in a way that will ensure that Coastal Emu access to their habitat is maintained, subject to refinement of the design of crossings and fencing. A requirement for these refinements to be made has been included in the conditions of approval.

- (a) 2012-13?
 (b) 2013-14?
 (c) 2014-15 to date?

Answer—

- (1) The number of complaints received for 2012-2013 and 2013-2014 are set out in the NSW Ombudsman's annual report, which is available from the Ombudsman's website. The figures for 2014-2015 are in the process of being finalised and will be tabled in Parliament in October 2015.
- (2) The NSW Ombudsman takes a range of different actions in response to complaints. The number of formal complaints finalised by the Ombudsman are included within the office's annual report each year.
- (3) The NSW Ombudsman has yet to report any matters to the PIC as required by the guidelines.
- (4) These complaints have been received directly and referred to the NSW Police Force under section 132 of the Police Act 1990. Many of these matters will also be overseen by the Ombudsman's office.
- (a) 2012-13- 732 complaints
 (b) 2013-14-951 complaints
 (c) 2014-15- 982 complaints-Interim figures only
- (5) As at 9am on 13 July 2015, the Ombudsman's office had 3,364 open matters. This includes both complaints and notifications under the policing, employment related child protection and disability reportable incident schemes.
- (6) The NSW Ombudsman's office endeavours to resolve all matters in a timely manner, and seeks to resolve as many matters as possible through informal inquiries. This helps to achieve the best possible outcome in the public interest.

In cases where the Ombudsman moves to conduct a formal investigation, the time taken to resolve the matter can vary.

In respect of the 2014-2015 period, as at 31 May, the average time taken to finalise new complaints under the Ombudsman Act 1974 and the Community Services (Complaints, Reviews and Monitoring) Act 2002 was 36.7 days. For matters under the Ombudsman's traditional jurisdiction, this was 25.58 days. These statistics do not include matters overseen by the Ombudsman in relation to policing, employment related child protection and disability reportable incidents.

The Ombudsman's involvement does not end with the making of findings and recommendations. The office continues to monitor agency compliance with findings and recommendations until satisfied they have been dealt with appropriately.

*199 ENVIRONMENT, HERITAGE—FEMALE FACTORY AT PARRAMATTA AND ASSOCIATED AREAS – WORLD HERITAGE LISTING—Ms Sharpe asked the Minister for Ageing, Minister for Disability Services, and Minister for Multiculturalism representing the Minister for the Environment, Minister for Heritage, and Assistant Minister for Planning—

- (1) Will the Minister for the Environment, Minister for Heritage, and Assistant Minister for Planning prepare a proposal for the listing of the Female Factory and neighbouring buildings and areas in North Parramatta on the World Heritage List, called for by heritage advocates and concerned citizens?
- (2) What action has the Minister taken to initiate and facilitate this action?
- (3) As these historic areas are part of the North Parramatta Urban Growth area, what input is the Minister and his Department having in the development of the growth strategy?

Answer—

I am advised as follows:

- (1) The federal government is the State Party to UNESCO's World Heritage Convention, therefore nominations for World Heritage listing are the responsibility of the Federal Minister for the Environment.
- (2) As noted above, the federal government has responsibility for World Heritage listing.
- (3) UrbanGrowth NSW is responsible for the Parramatta North Urban Transformation rezoning proposal that will support the growth strategy for this area. The Department of Planning and Environment is undertaking the assessment of the rezoning proposal, which will be determined by the Minister for Planning. The Heritage Council of NSW is a key stakeholder and has provided comments to the Department of Planning and Environment on the rezoning proposal. The Heritage Council will be the approval body for the determination of future integrated development applications submitted to Parramatta City Council for the Parramatta North Historic Sites heritage area, which I had the pleasure of touring in June. The Heritage Council receives advice and administrative support from the Heritage Division, Office of Environment and Heritage.

 - (c) How many hectares have been cleared under this process between 20 November 2014 and 1 June 2015 in the Central West Local Land Services Region?

Answer—

I am advised as follows:

- (1)
- (a) 42 notifications.
 - (b) None. Notification of intended use of a self-assessable code of practice does not lead to an automatic monitoring or compliance response. The Office of Environment and Heritage (OEH) actively promotes compliance by assisting landholders and others in the community to understand and meet their legislative obligations, and by applying considered and appropriate regulatory action targeting those who choose not to comply. OEH actively monitors unexplained clearing via its state wide satellite monitoring program. OEH also encourages the public to report potentially illegal activities.

- (c) Not recorded. Notifications were received for 5128 paddock trees with an associated 'set-aside' area of 1342 hectares. The 'set-aside' areas are required to balance the removal of trees. *202 ENVIRONMENT, HERITAGE—EPIDEMIC AMONGST THE BELLINGER RIVER SNAPPING TURTLES—Ms Sharpe asked the Minister for Ageing, Minister for Disability Services, and Minister for Multiculturalism representing the Minister for the Environment, Minister for Heritage, and Assistant Minister for Planning—

- (1) Could the Minister for the Environment, Minister for Heritage, and Assistant Minister for Planning provide an update as to the progress of the response team in the Office of Environment and Heritage in identifying the cause of the deaths of a large number of Bellinger River Snapping Turtles found dead and dying in the Bellinger River since late February?
- (2) What steps have been taken by the Office of Environment and Heritage to save the species?
- (3) Are the steps achieving any results?

Answer—

I am advised as follows:

- (1) A diagnostic team, involving experts from across Australia and overseas, has undertaken extensive testing of a wide range of samples to try and determine the cause of death. While results suggest an acute infectious process, testing has not identified a causal agent and investigations are continuing. Biosecurity precautions continue to be implemented to minimise the risk of any potential infectious agent spreading. This includes the closure of recreational areas in the Bellinger River catchment upstream of the affected zone and hygiene advice to people who use the river.
- (2) Seventeen Bellinger River Snapping Turtles have been taken from the wild for a captive breeding program. A comprehensive species conservation plan is being developed in consultation with a range of experts, Bellinger Shire Council and the local community. The Office of Environment and Heritage has submitted a nomination to the NSW Scientific Committee to list the Bellinger River Snapping Turtle as endangered. If listed, the turtles will have additional legislative protection.
- (3) The captive population has survived the quarantine period and has been confirmed as disease free. The animals appear to be in good health, although it is too early to determine the likelihood of spring breeding success.

*217 JUSTICE AND POLICE—FIREARMS LICENCES FOR HUNTING—Mr Shoebridge asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Deputy Premier, Minister for Justice and Police, Minister for the Arts, and Minister for Racing—

- (1)
- (a) How many firearms licences are currently held under section 12 of the Firearms Act 1996, subsection (4) with a table reason of 'recreational hunting or vermin control'?

- (b) Of firearm licences issued with a table reason of 'recreational hunting or vermin control', how many rely only on requirement (c) 'be a current member of a hunting club approved by the Commissioner in accordance with the regulations'?

(2) What hunting clubs are currently approved as a 'genuine reason' for a firearms licence?

Answer—

The NSW Police Force has advised me:

(1)

- (a) Records indicate there are currently 173,491 category A licences issued for the genuine reason of recreational hunting or vermin control, and 162,747 category B licences. It is noted that one person can hold more than one licence category.
- (b) Prior to 2010, the Integrated Licensing System (ILS) did not break down the genuine reason of 'recreational hunting or vermin control'. An accurate number of people who have used hunting club membership as a genuine reason for a firearms licence cannot therefore be provided.

(2) Of the 230 approved hunting clubs, 18 also hold a firearms licence for the genuine reason of hunting.

 - (b) How much funding will be allocated to this in 2015-16?
 - (c) How much funding was allocated to this each year for the last five financial years, broken down into the total amount for each year?

Answer—

- (1) Sydney Water continually monitors its environmental performance across its entire area of operations, including the Blue Mountains. Sydney Water's Operating Licence sets environmental performance indicators to monitor its impact on the environment. Sydney Water's Environmental Management System manages environmental risks and impacts.
 Each month Sydney Water tests water quality at its wastewater treatment plants, water filtration plants and at the advanced water treatment plant. Summaries are published in Sydney Water's Pollution Monitoring Data Reports.
 Sydney Water has now sewered about 14,000 properties in the Blue Mountains at a cost of about $300 million as part of the NSW Government's Priority Sewerage Program.
- (2)
 - (a) Sydney Water's Environment Plan sets out the objectives, targets and actions that manage environmental risk, compliance and improve environmental performance across its entire area of operations, including the Blue Mountains. The Environment Plan is a five year plan, reviewed every year. It is available on Sydney Water's website.
 - (b) In 2015-16 Sydney Water is investing $705 million across its area of operations for water and wastewater infrastructure which will contribute to improved environmental outcomes in Sydney, the Blue Mountains and the Illawarra. Around $10 million has been earmarked specifically for the Blue Mountains.
 - (c) Sydney Water has spent nearly $40 million in the Blue Mountains electorate since April 2011. This includes around $2 million between April and June 2011, almost $9 million in 2011-12, around $7 million in 2012-13 and over $10 million each year in 2013-14 and 2014-15.

 - (f) Level 6 emergency departments?

Answer—

I am advised by the Minister for Health:

- (1) to (4) NSW does not use fixed nurse-to-patient ratios on a shift. Instead, for suitable wards, NSW public hospitals use a more flexible method, called Nursing Hours per Patient Day, which allocates an average number of nursing hours that should be provided in a ward over the course of a week. In every facility and service across NSW, nursing and hospital management make an assessment based on a range of factors including patient safety, clinical needs, professional judgment, previous experience and safe systems of work when deciding staffing requirements to provide appropriate patient care. The location of hospitals with emergency departments and their levels may be found at: <http://www.health.nsw.gov.au/Hospitals/Pages/role-delineation-levels.aspx>

In addition to this at the time of appointment workers in 'child related' work must have a valid Working With Children Check (renewed every five years).

Rates of pay for registered nurses are as outlined in the relevant awards.

Questions relating to nursing homes should be directed to the Federal Minister for Health.

Answer—

I am advised by the Minister for Health:

- (1) to (11) The minimum education requirements for a person to practise as an assistant in nursing in a NSW public health facility are variable and are dependent on the requirements of the employing facility.

In NSW Health, an assistant in nursing works under the supervision and direction of a registered nurse. The Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia governs the minimum education requirements of a registered nurse and enrolled nurse.

A National Criminal Record Check is required for all new appointments to NSW Health. Workers in 'aged care work' must have a new check undertaken every three years. Answer—

I am advised by the Minister for Health:

- (1) to (12) The Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia governs the minimum education requirements of enrolled nurses and registered nurses.

A National Criminal Record Check is required for all new appointments to NSW Health. Workers in 'aged care work' must have a new check undertaken every three years. In addition to this at the time of appointment workers in 'child related' work must have a valid Working With Children Check (renewed every five years).

NSW Health funds enrolled nurse employees without medication endorsement to undertake the EN

Medication Management course.

Rates of pay for enrolled nurses are as outlined in the relevant awards.

Questions relating to nursing homes should be directed to the Federal Minister for Health.

- (b) If so, when?
- (c) If not, why not?

Answer—

(1)

- (a) No.
- (b) Not applicable.
- (c) NSW has a robust system in place to address animal cruelty that reflects and is responsive to changing community attitudes and farming practices. Animal welfare is supported in NSW by the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act 1979 (POCTA) and underpinning Codes and Standards. POCTA provides protection for all animals in NSW.

Any person concerned about an incident of animal welfare abuse should immediately lodge their complaint to the enforcement agencies – RSPCA NSW, Animal Welfare League NSW and NSW Police.

While there is a legislated nationally agreed commitment to restrict the use of sow stalls to the first six weeks of gestation from 1 July 2017, the Australian pork industry in November 2010 voluntarily committed to pursue a phase out by 2017, meaning sows are loose housed for a minimum of 90 per cent of their pregnancy. - (3) What is the value of the land now?
- (4) What will the money raised from the sale of the site be used for?

Answer—

- (1) to (4) The Government will invest over $100 million to redevelop the Arthur Phillip High School and the Parramatta Primary School to increase the enrolment capacity to 2,000 and 1,000 students respectively. This increase, along with the $40 million investment to construct a 1,000 student primary school on the Old Kings School site, will significantly increase places available in the Parramatta Local Government Area.

The Macquarie Boys High School was closed by the previous Labor Government.

*338 FAMILY AND COMMUNITY SERVICES—KEEP THEM SAFE OUTCOMES EVALUATION—Ms Barham asked the Minister for Ageing, Minister for Disability Services, and Minister for Multiculturalism representing the Minister for Family and Community Services, and Minister for Social Housing—

Given that the 2014 Evaluation Report states that it is too early to tell after five years if early intervention initiatives are contributing to a reduction of children being abused or neglected:

- (1) When will the Government carry out a second evaluation to see to what extent the early intervention programs are keeping the children of New South Wales safer and how they may be improved or expanded?
- (2) When will the Minister for Family and Community Services instigate evaluation of the individual programs identified in the Evaluation Report as being too soon to be able to be effectively evaluated, such as the early intervention programs, the support of Aboriginal families and communities, the changes to the multi-agency approach to intervention, the home visiting programs, and other individual programs that make up the total Keep Them Safe incentives?
- (3) Why does New South Wales, according to the evaluation, have such a comparatively high reporting of children suspected of being at risk of significant harm even after increasing the threshold from 'harm' to 'significant harm'?
- (4)
 - (a) Is the high incidence of child protection reports and child removal relating to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children in New South Wales is as a result of underlying problems of intergenerational disadvantage?
 - (b) If so, what are the plans for addressing Aboriginal Child Protection within the context of widespread poverty, physical and mental ill health, substance abuse, low life expectancy, unemployment, lower educational achievement, homelessness and other indicators of disadvantage?
- (5) What steps have been taken in the past year, since the release of the evaluation report in June 2014, to increase the rate of face to face assessment of the most vulnerable children, aged 0 to 5 years, from almost one in two Aboriginal children and one in three non-Aboriginal children reported as being at Risk of Significant Harm?
- (6) In the light of the evaluation report stating that 'many service providers do not feel confident in supporting families with higher need', with issues such as domestic violence, mental ill health, substance abuse and intergenerational poverty, what steps are being taken to put more resources into building capacity for these service providers so that, even if the children are removed, the family is assisted to make the changes so that their future children will be safe?
- (7) What action has been taken in response to the criticism in the Evaluation Report that the interagency approach to intervention in serious cases of abuse and neglect requires a strategic framework for the co-ordination of all the agencies involved in the individual cases?
- (8) With the relatively limited attention to the plight of the abused and neglected adolescents in the KTS program, when will the evaluation be carried and reported on the FACS 'Better Lives for Vulnerable Teenagers' program introduced in response to the concerns for this group raised by the NSW Ombudsman in July 2012?
- (9) With the relatively limited attention to the safety of the children and young people whose reports of significant harm are discarded on the basis of 'competing priorities' in the KTS evaluation, when will the data and details be released on this group of children?
- (10) What extra budget allocations are being made to the Department of Family and Community Services to increase the resources so as to enable them to carry out their responsibilities in terms of assessing which children and young people who are the subject of reports are in need of care and protection, and in particular to increase the number of children reported at risk of significant harm who receive face-to-face assessment and or services?

Answer—

The Department of Family & Community Services (FACS) is continuing to invest in evaluations aimed at providing evidence to inform policy reforms and service improvements.

It is not possible to directly compare jurisdictional data across in Australia, due to the different ways in which risk of significant harm is defined and identified.

FACS is committed to working with Aboriginal people and other government agencies to reduce disadvantage in Aboriginal communities. FACS, through its Districts, is working with communities so that they are responsive and relevant to local needs.

FACS continues to progress a number of strategies and initiatives to increase the rate of face to face assessments. This includes recruitment initiatives to attract and retain caseworkers in hard-to-fill locations.

FACS is developing and implementing a number of strategies designed to enhance and improve interagency collaboration and strengthen the capacity of partner agencies to respond to high risk families, including high level inter-departmental collaboration through co-design, consultation and other planning mechanisms.

FACS data is publicly available.

The 2015/16 FACS budget will continue to support our goal of providing vulnerable children and young people with long-term, stable environments.

*340 EDUCATION—“TEEN SEX BY THE BOOK”—Dr Kaye asked the Minister for Primary Industries, and Minister for Lands and Water representing the Minister for Education—

- (1) Is the Minister for Education aware that Youthworks is still advertising on its Authorised Curriculum page on its website (<http://www.youthworks.net/sre/authorised-curriculum>) the book "Teen Sex By the Book" as a resource for use in Special Religious Education lessons, under the headline "Click here to view teaching resources available from CEP"?
- (2) What steps will the Minister take to stop Youthworks from advertising this book that, in his words, "is not authorised by the Anglican Church for use in New South Wales government schools"?

Answer—

On the CEP website there is a specific note indicating that this is not an authorised text for NSW State School Special Religious Education (SRE). The resource is not included in the Anglican Church's SRE curriculum delivered in NSW Public Schools.

*341 TRANSPORT AND INFRASTRUCTURE—NON-OPERATIONAL RAIL LINES—Mr Veitch asked the Minister for Roads, Maritime and Freight, and Vice-President of the Executive Council representing the Minister for Transport and Infrastructure—

- (1) How does the Government manage and maintain non-operational or disused railway lines in New South Wales?
- (2) Who carries out the management and maintenance of non-operational or disused railway lines in New South Wales?
- (3) How much has the Government spent on the management and maintenance of non-operational or disused railway lines in NSW, broken down by each rail line for each financial years:

 - (d) 2011-12?
- (4) What is the total cost of managing and maintaining non-operational or disused railway lines in New South Wales since 1 July 2011?

Answer—

I am advised:

The Country Regional Network includes rail lines totaling 3,127 kilometres located across NSW that have been made non-operational over a long period of time due to low rail traffic demand and condition of the lines.

John Holland Rail carries out the management and maintenance of non-operational or disused railway lines in NSW. The scope of work includes an annual inspection, management of noxious weeds, vermin control and identifying and addressing general safety risks to the public.

The total cost of managing and maintaining non-operational or disused railway lines in NSW for the period 1 July 2011 to 31 May 2015 is about $6.6 million.

*344 INNOVATION AND BETTER REGULATION—STANDARDS OF EQUIPMENT WHEN PROVIDING A REFURBISHED OR REPLACED ITEM—Dr Kaye asked the Minister for Ageing, Minister for Disability Services, and Minister for Multiculturalism representing the Minister for Innovation and Better Regulation—

- (1) When a company replaces a product with a refurbished or like-for-like product, what steps has the Government taken to ensure that "refurbished" or "like-for-like" are defined to a standard that the average customer would consider acceptable?
- (2) Has the general standard of products used as replacement items or like-for-like models ever been investigated by the Government?

Answer—

All consumer products in Australia, including those used as refurbished or like-for-like replacement items, continue to be subject to consumer guarantees, product safety requirements and standards under the Australian Consumer Law (ACL) and fair trading laws of each state and territory.

Consumer guarantees under the ACL include ensuring products are of an acceptable quality, are fit for purpose, have been accurately described and match any sample or demonstration model.

Consumer products must also be safe, comply with any relevant mandatory standards and not be subject to any bans before they are supplied. Severe penalties apply to traders or manufacturers who do not comply with product safety requirements.

If a repairer uses refurbished parts or products as replacement items, they must give the consumer a written repair notice before accepting goods for repair. This notice must include specific wording required by the ACL that states, "Goods presented for repair may be replaced by refurbished goods of the same type rather than being repaired."

*345 LANDS AND WATER, PRIMARY INDUSTRIES—MACLEAY RIVER SHELLFISH—Mr Veitch asked the Minister for Primary Industries, and Minister for Lands and Water—

- (1)
 - (a) How many times, including dates and duration of each instance, has the Macleay River been closed to shellfish or oyster harvesting in the past five years?
 - (b) For each instance of closure, what was the reason for the closure?
- (2) Is it within the authority of the local shellfish committee to close the Macleay River to shellfish or oyster harvesting for any reason other than environmental or health reasons, for example by agreement of committee members?
- (3) What auditing measures are in place to ensure that required oyster grower contributions to funding for shellfish quality assurance sampling are received and expended accordingly?

Answer—

- (1)
 - (a) Various parts of the Macleay River shellfish program harvest areas have been closed on 39 occasions in the five year period from 1 July 2010 to 30 June 2015. Note that on three occasions an environmental closure ran into a seasonal closure and hence the two events are reported as a single closure. On another two occasions an area was closed for environmental reasons but the local shellfish program did not recommence sampling to re-open the area until spring and so these closures effectively include a seasonal closure.
 - (b) Details are summarised in Table 1. A table has been provided, please contact the Table office 9230 2431.
- (2) The 29 currently active shellfish estuaries in NSW are covered by 27 local shellfish programs and each program is managed by a local shellfish committee. Members of each local shellfish committee can determine periods during which the program ceases to undertake the environmental monitoring and shellfish testing that is required to assure the safety of harvested product and keep the harvest area open. When this occurs the committee advises the NSW Food Authority and the NSW Food Authority closes the harvest area during this period. The shellfish industry refers to these closures as seasonal closures.
- (3) Each local shellfish program must hold an annual general meeting (AGM) where expenditure for the previous year and budget for the coming year are tabled. Members use these figures to set the local levy payable by each member to fund the program for the coming year. The NSW Food Authority collects the local levy on behalf of the local shellfish program and remits these funds in full to the local shellfish program.

After the AGM, each local shellfish program provides the NSW Food Authority with Minutes of the AGM, reconciliation of expenditure for the previous year and full accounts for the previous year, and the budget agreed by the committee for the coming year.

The NSW Food Authority verifies all figures provided by local shellfish programs. Payments to local shellfish programs are contingent upon this information being provided and passing the required checks. Financial information provided by each local shellfish program is also available for review by the Audit Office of NSW as part of its annual audit of the NSW Food Authority accounts.

Answer—

I am advised as follows:

As the relevant local government authority, Byron Shire Council assumes care, control and management of the beachfront Crown land along Belongil Spit.

Byron Shire Council is also the determining authority for the proposed works.

The government, through the Coastal Management Program, signed a funding agreement to provide financial assistance for the installation of interim coastal protection works at Manfred Street, Belongil. A maximum of $300,000 is available in the funding agreement on a 1:1 basis, subject to Byron Shire Council's submission of an acceptable design.

$16,250 was provided for Stage 1 (investigation and design) of the interim protection works. Based on Byron Shire Council's adopted works design, and the Review of Environmental Factors, the activities proposed for Stage 2 of the project are not considered eligible for funding under the Coastal Management Program.

Should Council agree to a modified design, the balance of the funding will be made available.
