Ms Walker says—

Mr PRESIDENT:

I give notice that on the next sitting day I will move:

1. That this House notes:

   (a) The NSW Government is withdrawing funding for medical necessities for profoundly disabled residents at Grosvenor Centre in Summer Hill, including lifesaving oxygen tanks and breathing tubes.

   (b) This funding withdrawn is likely to severely impact the financial capacity of many families and residents at the Grosvenor Centre, many of whom can’t walk, can’t talk and are tube fed.

   (c) The NSW Government is the only state or territory to totally vacate being a provider of services to people with a disability and they have used the NDIS to abdicate from their responsibilities.

2. That this House call on the Government to:

   (a) Permanently maintain medical funding for the vulnerable residents at Grosvenor Centre in Summer Hill into the future
