204. Sessional committees

(1) The House may establish sessional committees at the commencement of each session of Parliament to consider matters relating to the provision of services to members.

(2) The functions and composition of any sessional committee will be as determined by the House from time to time.

205. Procedure committee

(1) A Procedure Committee will be appointed at the commencement of each Parliament.

(2) The committee may:

   (a) consider on its own initiative any amendments to the standing orders,

   (b) propose to the House changes in practice and procedures of the House, and

   (c) consider any matter relating to the procedures referred to it by the House or the President.

(3) The President, Deputy President, Leader of the Government and Leader of the Opposition are to be among the members of the committee.

(4) Members may be appointed to the committee as substitutes for a member of the committee, by notice in writing to the Chair of the committee.

(5) Nominations may be made by the Leader of the Government, the Leader of the Opposition, the Government and Opposition Whips, and Cross Bench Members, as applicable.

206. Standing committees

(1) The House may establish standing committees which have power to sit during the life of the Parliament.

(2) The functions, source of references and composition of any standing committee will be as determined by the House in the resolution appointing the committee.

207. Select committees

(1) The House may appoint select committees to consider matters referred by the House. A select committee has power to sit during the life of the Parliament. When the committee completes its inquiry and presents its final report to the House, the committee ceases to exist.

(2) The composition of any select committee will be as determined by the House.
GENERAL COMMITTEE PROVISIONS

208. Powers

A committee has power:

(a) to adjourn from time to time,
(b) to adjourn from place to place,
(c) to send for and examine persons, papers, records and things,
(d) to make visits of inspection within New South Wales and, if authorised by the House, with the approval of the President, elsewhere in Australia and outside Australia, and
(e) to request the attendance of and examine members of the House.

209. Must not sit while the House is sitting

(1) A committee may sit during any adjournment of the House.

(2) A committee must not sit while the House is sitting, unless the House otherwise orders.

210. Membership

Sessional order no. 10 Pecuniary interest – SO 2010 (10)

(1) The composition of each committee is to be determined by the House in the resolution appointing the committee.

(2) Government members are to be nominated by the Leader of the Government.

(3) Opposition members are to be nominated by the Leader of the Opposition.

(4) Cross bench members are to be nominated by agreement between cross bench members.

(5) In the absence of any agreement the representation on a committee is to be determined by the House.

(6) Nominations for membership of the committees are to be in writing to the Clerk within seven days of the passing of the resolution appointing the committee.

(7) Members may also at any time, by motion on notice, be discharged by the House from attending a committee, and other members appointed or added.

(8) The President may not be elected to any committee other than one of which the President is an ex officio member.

(9) If the Deputy President is elected to serve on a committee and declines to do so, another member is to be elected.

(10) No member may take part in a committee inquiry where the member has a pecuniary interest in the inquiry of the committee. No member may take part in a committee inquiry where the member has a direct pecuniary interest in the inquiry of the committee, unless it is in common with the general public, or a class of persons within the general public, or it is on a matter of state policy.¹

¹ Sessional order no. 10 Pecuniary interest – SO 2010 (10), Resolved—LC Minutes 6 May 2015 p. 58
211. Chair and Deputy Chair

(1) Chairs and Deputy Chairs of Committees are to be appointed or elected by the committee in accordance with the resolution of the House appointing the committee.

(2) The member nominated as Deputy Chair is to act as Chair when the Chair is absent from a meeting.

(3) In the absence of both the Chair and Deputy Chair from a meeting of a committee, a member of the committee is to be elected by the members present to act as Chair for that meeting of the committee.

(4) The Chair, Deputy Chair or other member acting as Chair at a meeting of a committee has a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, a casting vote.

212. Priority of references

The priority to be accorded to a reference received by a committee may be determined by the Chair of the committee, unless the committee decides otherwise.

213. First meeting

(1) The Clerk is to fix the time and place for the first meeting of each committee in such a manner as the Clerk thinks fit.

(2) At the first meeting, before proceeding to any other business the Chair and Deputy Chair are to be elected, unless the resolution of the House appointing the committee provides otherwise.

214. Quorum

(1) Unless otherwise ordered, the quorum of a committee is three members.

(2) If, after 15 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting of a committee, a quorum is not present, the meeting is adjourned and the Chair of the committee will fix the next meeting of the committee.

(3) The clerk of the committee is to record the names of the members present.

215. Loss of a quorum during a meeting

If, during the sitting of a committee, the loss of a quorum is brought to the attention of the Chair by another committee member, after ten minutes has elapsed the Chair will suspend the proceedings of the committee to a later hour. If a quorum is not then present, the committee will be adjourned to another day, to be fixed by the Chair.

216. Member attendance

(1) A member must seek leave of the committee in order to be absent from four or more consecutive committee meetings.

(2) If a member fails to attend four consecutive meetings of a committee without leave of the committee, the absence is to be reported by the Chair to the House.

(3) If the member fails to attend the next meeting without leave of the committee, the Chair is to again inform the House. This procedure is to continue until the member attends a committee meeting.
These requirements do not apply to those committees for which the House has made provision for substitute members.

217. Sub-committees

(1) Where the resolution appointing a committee makes provision for sub-committees, a committee has power to appoint sub-committees consisting of two or more of its members:
   (a) to assist the committee in the exercise of any of its functions, or
   (b) to investigate and report on any matter referred to the committee.

(2) A sub-committee has the same powers as the committee appointing it.

(3) The committee is to appoint one of its members to act as Chair of any sub-committee and the member appointed has a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, a casting vote.

(4) Unless otherwise ordered, the quorum of a sub-committee is two, of whom one must be a government member and one a non-government member.

(5) A sub-committee is to report to the committee on any matter referred to it by the committee. The committee may adopt the report, reject the report, or adopt the report with variations.

(6) A sub-committee is to conduct its meetings and business in the same manner as the committee appointing it.

218. Participation by members of the House and others

Sessional order no. 17 Participation by members of the House and others – SO 218

(1) Unless a committee decides otherwise, a member of the House who is not a member of the relevant committee may take part in the public or private proceedings of a committee and question witnesses but may not vote, move any motion or be counted for the purpose of any quorum or division.

(2) Persons other than members of the House and officers of a committee may attend a public meeting of a committee, but will not only attend a private meeting except by express invitation of the committee, and will always be excluded when the committee is deliberating. ²

219. Meeting or joining with other committees

A committee or any sub-committee may:

(a) join together with any other committee of the House or the Legislative Assembly to take evidence, deliberate and make joint reports on matters of mutual concern, and

(b) meet with any other State or Commonwealth parliamentary committees to inquire into matters of mutual concern.

220. Joint committees

(1) A proposal for a joint committee of the House and Legislative Assembly must contain the names of the members of the House appointed to serve on the committee.

² Sessional order no. 17 Participation by members of the House and others – SO 218, Resolved—LC Minutes 6 May 2015 p. 60
(2) Any such proposal agreed to by the House will be forwarded to the Legislative Assembly by message.

(3) The proceedings of a joint committee will be reported to the House by one of the members appointed to serve on the committee.

(4) At least three members of the House must be present at any meeting of a joint committee.

(5) If the House agrees to a proposal from the Legislative Assembly to appoint a joint committee, the House will determine the time and place of the first meeting of the committee.

221. Submissions

Any person or body may make written or recorded submissions to a committee with respect to any inquiry being conducted by the committee.

222. Evidence

(1) A committee is to take all evidence in public unless the committee decides otherwise.

(2) A witness before a committee is to be given the opportunity of correcting their transcript of evidence, but corrections must be confined to verbal inaccuracies or explanations of answers. Corrections in substance can only be made by further giving of evidence.

223. Publishing submissions and evidence

(1) A committee has power to authorise publication, before presentation to the House, of submissions received and evidence taken.

(2) Evidence taken in camera may be published by resolution of the committee where it is in the public interest to do so.

(3) A committee:

   (a) may make available to any member of the public a copy of:

      (i) any written submissions made to it,

      (ii) the report of any inquiry carried out by it, or

      (iii) the record of any evidence taken in public, and

   (b) may charge a reasonable sum for making copies available.

(4) A committee or sub-committee may authorise the tape recording of its public hearings.

224. Unauthorised disclosure of evidence and documents

(1) The evidence taken by a committee and documents presented to it, which have not been reported to the House, may not, unless authorised by the House or committee, be disclosed to any person other than a member or officer of the committee.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply to:

   (a) any proceedings of the committee that are open to the public and news media,

   (b) any member of the committee or officers of the House or committee in the exercise or performance of their duties,

   (c) press releases or statements made by a member of the committee on the authority of the committee,
(d) written submissions presented to a select committee and authorised to be published by the committee,
(e) any submission or document of the committee referred to any person for comment to assist the committee in its inquiry, and
(f) any document authorised to be published by the committee.

(3) Any person committing a breach of this standing order may be reported to the House.

225. No representation of witnesses

A person or body is not entitled or permitted to be represented by counsel or a solicitor at a hearing of a committee unless the committee decides otherwise.

226. Reports

(1) A committee has leave to report to the House from time to time its proceedings, evidence taken in public, and recommendations as it deems fit.

(2) A committee may include in any report made to the House a draft bill to give effect to the recommendations of the committee.

(3) For the purposes of preparing a draft bill for incorporation in a report to the House, a committee may, with the consent of the relevant Minister, make use of the services of any staff of the Parliamentary Counsel’s Office.

(4) A committee may publish discussion papers for the purpose of any inquiry.

227. Consideration of reports

(1) The Chair, on the request of the committee, is to prepare a draft report and submit it to the committee.

(2) The draft report is to be considered at a meeting convened for that purpose and may be amended as the committee thinks fit. A report may be reconsidered and amended.

(3) The report of a committee, as agreed to by the committee, must be signed by the Chair, or in the event of the Chair refusing, any other member appointed by the committee.

228. Members’ opinions to be reflected

(1) The report of a committee is, as far as practicable, to reflect a unanimity of opinion within a committee.

(2) It is the responsibility of a committee Chair and all members of a committee to seek to achieve unanimity of opinion.

(3) Where unanimity is not practicable, a committee’s report should be prepared so as to reflect the views of all members of the committee.

(4) Where unanimity is not practicable, any member may append to the report a brief statement of dissent, provided that:

   (a) the member has sought to have their opinions included in the report agreed to by the committee,
   (b) the statement of dissent is relevant to the committee’s report and the terms of reference of the inquiry,
229. Chair’s foreword

A committee Chair’s foreword must be approved by the committee prior to tabling of the committee’s report in the House, if the committee so resolves.

230. Tabling reports

The report of a committee, with accompanying documents, is to be tabled in the House by the member signing the report, or in the absence of the member, by some other member of the committee, within ten calendar days of the report being adopted by the committee.

231. Tabling out of session

(1) If the House is not sitting when a committee wishes to report to the House, the committee is to present copies of its report to the Clerk.

(2) A report presented to the Clerk is:

(a) on presentation, and for all purposes, deemed to have been laid before the House,

(b) to be printed by authority of the Clerk,

(c) for all purposes, deemed to be a document published by order or under the authority of the House, and

(d) to be recorded in the Minutes of the Proceedings of the House.

232. Debate on committee reports

Sessional order no. 5 Debate on committee reports

(1) On tabling of a report from a committee a motion may be moved without notice “That the House take note of the report”.

(2) At the conclusion of the speech of the mover, the debate is to be adjourned to the next day on which committee reports have been given precedence.

(3) Unless otherwise ordered, the order of the day for the resumption of debates on committee reports is to be set down on the Notice Paper in the order in which the reports were presented.

(4) The debate on committee reports on any day on which the debate has precedence is to be interrupted after one hour is to take precedence after questions on Tuesdays until 6.30 pm. The interrupted debate is to stand adjourned and be set down on the business paper for the next day on which it has precedence.

(5) Each speaker in the debate on committee reports is to be limited to 10 minutes, except the committee Chair who is allowed 15 minutes and a further 10 minutes in reply.³

³ Sessional order no. 5 Debate on committee reports, Resolved—LC Minutes 6 May 2015 p. 56, see also Standing Order 41 – Reports of committees – precedence.
233. Government response

(1) On the tabling of a report from a committee, which recommends that action be taken by the government the Clerk is to refer the report to the Leader of the Government in the House who must within six months of a report being tabled, report to the House what action, if any, the government proposes to take in relation to each recommendation of the committee.

(2) If, at the time at which the government seeks to report to the House, the House is not sitting, a Minister may present the response to the Clerk.

(3) A response presented to the Clerk is:

(a) on presentation, and for all purposes, deemed to have been laid before the House,
(b) to be printed by authority of the Clerk,
(c) for all purposes, deemed to be a document published by order or under the authority of the House,
(d) to be recorded in the Minutes of the Proceedings of the House, and
(e) to be distributed by the clerk of the committee to inquiry participants.

(4) The President is to report to the House when any government response has not been received within the six month deadline.

234. Resources

(1) A committee is to be provided with the resources necessary to carry out its functions.

(2) A committee may, with the consent of the appropriate Minister, make use of the services of any staff or facilities of a government department, administrative office or public body.

(3) A Chair of a committee may report to the President on any matter relating to the administration, functioning or operation of the committee.

(4) The Clerk is to appoint an officer of the Council to act as clerk to the committee.

(5) The clerk to a committee must record and include in the committee’s report to the House:

(a) the names of the members attending each meeting of a committee,
(b) the proceedings of the committee and every motion or amendment moved and the name of the mover, and
(c) the names of the members voting on each side in a division.

   (b) examine each annual or other report of the authorities,

   (c) examine trends and changes in compensation governed by the authorities, and

   (d) recommend any changes to the functions and procedures of the authorities or advisory committees.

5. In exercising the supervisory function outlined in paragraph 3, the committee:

   (a) does not have authority to investigate a particular compensation claim, and
Standing committees

(b) must report to the House in relation to the exercise of the functions of each authority at least once every two years.

Social Issues Committee

6. The committee may inquire into and report on:

(a) issues concerned with the social development and wellbeing of the people of New South Wales, including health, education, housing, ageing, disability, children’s services and community services, and

(b) matters concerned with citizenship, sport and recreation and gaming and racing.

State Development Committee

7. The committee may inquire into and report on:

(a) issues concerned with state, local and regional development in New South Wales, and

(b) matters concerned with planning, infrastructure, finance, industry, the environment, primary industry, natural resources, science, local government, emergency services and public administration.

Referral of inquiries

8. (1) A committee:

(a) is to inquire into and report on any matter relevant to the functions of the committee which is referred to the committee by resolution of the House,

(b) may inquire into and report on any matter relevant to the functions of the committee which is referred by a Minister of the Crown, and

(c) may inquire into and report on any annual report or petition relevant to the functions of the committee which has been laid upon the Table of the Legislative Council.

(2) Whenever a committee resolves to inquire into a matter, under paragraph 8 (b) or 8 (c), the terms of reference or the resolution is to be reported to the House on the next sitting day.

Powers

9. A committee has power to make visits of inspection within New South Wales and, with the approval of the President, elsewhere in Australia and outside Australia.

Membership

10. Each committee is to consist of six members, comprising:
Standing committees

(a) three government members,
(b) two opposition members, and
(c) one crossbench member.

Chair and Deputy Chair

11. (1) The Leader of the Government is to nominate in writing to the Clerk of the House the Chair of each committee.

(2) The Leader of the Opposition is to nominate in writing to the Clerk of the House the Deputy Chair of each committee.

Quorum

12. The quorum of a committee is three members, of whom two must be government members and one a non-government member.

Sub-committees

13. A committee has the power to appoint sub-committees.

Substitute members

14. (1) Members may be appointed to a committee as substitute members for any matter before the committee, by notice in writing to the Committee Clerk.

(2) Nominations for substitute government or opposition members are to be made by the Leader of the Government, Leader of the Opposition, Government or Opposition Whip or Deputy Whip, as applicable.

(3) Nominations for substitute crossbench members are to be made by the substantive member or another crossbench member.

Electronic participation in deliberative meetings

15. (1) A committee member who is unable to attend a deliberative meeting in person may participate by electronic communication and may move any motion and be counted for the purpose of any quorum or division, provided that:

(a) the Chair is present in the meeting room, and

(b) all members are able to speak to and hear each other at all times.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph 15(1), a member may not participate by electronic communication in a meeting to consider a draft report.

Conduct of committee proceedings

16. Unless the committee decides otherwise:

Message received from the Assembly—LC Minutes 28 May 2015 p. 147-152

MR PRESIDENT

The Legislative Assembly informs the Legislative Council that it has this day agreed to the following resolution:

That:

(1) A Joint Standing Committee, to be known as the Joint Standing Committee on the Office of the Valuer-General be appointed.

(2) The Committee’s functions be:

(a) to monitor and review the exercise of the Valuer-General’s functions with respect to land valuations under the Valuation of Land Act 1916 and the Land Tax Management Act 1956, and in particular:
   (i) to monitor the methodologies employed for the purpose of conducting such valuations,
   (ii) to monitor the arrangements under which valuation service contracts are negotiated and entered into, and
   (iii) to monitor the standard of valuation services provided under such contracts,

(b) to report to both Houses of Parliament, with such comments as it thinks fit, on any matter connected with the exercise of the Valuer-General’s functions referred to in paragraph (a) to which, in the opinion of the Committee, the attention of Parliament should be directed,

(c) to report to both Houses of Parliament any change that the Committee considers desirable to the Valuer-General’s functions referred to in paragraph (a),

(d) to inquire into any question in connection with the Committee’s functions which is referred to it by both Houses of Parliament, and to report to both Houses on that question.

(3) The functions of the Committee not extend to the investigation of any matter relating to or arising from a particular valuation of a specific parcel of land.

(4) The Committee consist of five members as follows:

(a) three members of the Legislative Assembly of whom two must be Government members and one must be a non-Government member, and

(b) two members of the Legislative Council of whom one must be a Government member and one must be a non-Government member.

Legislative Council
2 June 2015
RESOLUTIONS OF CONTINUING EFFECT

BROADCASTING OF PROCEEDINGS

Resolved—LC Minutes 18 October 2007 p. 279-281

Sound and audio-visual broadcast of proceedings of the House

1. That this House authorises the sound and audio-visual broadcast of the proceedings of the House:

   (a) on the broadcast system within the precincts of Parliament House,
   (b) by direct signal to the media gallery in Parliament House,
   (c) to persons and organisations outside Parliament House approved by the President, on terms and conditions determined by the President from time to time, and
   (d) by webcast on the Internet.

Broadcasting

2. The live broadcast or rebroadcast of proceedings of the Legislative Council is authorised on the following conditions, and any other terms and conditions, not inconsistent with this paragraph, determined by the President from time to time:

   (a) excerpts may be taken from the proceedings of the House from the time of the meeting of the House until the adjournment of the House,
   (b) recordings and broadcasts must only be made from the sound or audio-visual signal provided by the Legislative Council,
   (c) broadcasts of excerpts must be used only for the purposes of fair and accurate reports of proceedings and must provide a balanced presentation of differing views,
   (d) excerpts must not be used for:
      (i) political party advertising or election campaigns,
      (ii) the purpose of satire or ridicule,
      (iii) commercial sponsorship or commercial advertising,
   (e) excerpts of proceedings which are subsequently withdrawn may be broadcast if the withdrawal is also broadcast,
   (f) excerpts must be placed in context,
   (g) where audio excerpts of proceedings are used on radio and television, commentators must identify Members by name,
(h) where audio excerpts of proceedings are used on television, their use may be that of audio over still frames, or overlay material,

(i) where excerpts are used on commercial stations, the station must ensure that advertising before and after excerpts is of an appropriate nature,

(j) events in the Galleries are not part of the proceedings and excerpts of those events must not be used,

(k) access to proceedings for the purpose of recording is on the basis of an undertaking to observe these conditions. A breach of these conditions by a station may result in the suspension or withdrawal of permission by the President for the station to broadcast excerpts of the proceedings of the House,

(l) the instructions of the President or delegated representatives, on the use of recorded excerpts, must be observed at all times, and

(m) the President may approve filming, on request, by persons or organisations, according to the terms and conditions set out in this resolution.

Still photography

3. That this House authorises access to the proceedings of the Legislative Council by still photographers on the following terms and conditions:

(a) photographers from the print media who are accredited members of the Parliamentary Press Gallery may, with the approval of the President, take photographs during Question Time and at other times,

(b) photographers who are accredited members of the Parliamentary Press Gallery require the approval of the President and a signed undertaking to comply with the terms and conditions set out in this resolution,

(c) accreditation passes are to be worn and clearly visible at all times whilst a photographer is on the Parliamentary premises,

(d) photographs must be used only for the purposes of fair and accurate reports of proceedings and must provide a balanced presentation of differing views,

(e) photographs must not be used for:
   (i) political party advertising or election campaigns,
   (ii) the purpose of satire or ridicule,
   (iii) commercial sponsorship or commercial advertising,

(f) photographs must be placed in context,

(g) photographs of individual Members, not speaking in debate, are not permitted,

(h) photographs taken with telephoto lenses or zoom lenses must not show any Member closer than at “head and shoulders” distance,
Resolutions of continuing effect

(i) telephoto lenses or zoom lenses must not be used to inspect Members’ documents or computer screens, and close up photographs of Members’ documents or computer screens must not be taken,

(j) photographs of persons in the galleries must not be taken, with the only exception being photographs of distinguished visitors at the time they are welcomed to the House by the Chair,

(k) photographs of disturbances by visitors or any other persons is not permitted,

(l) the use of flash or other sources of additional lighting and motor driven cameras is not permitted,

(m) photographs are not to be digitally enhanced, touched up or altered in any form,

(n) cropping from single or group photographs is not permitted,

(o) as a general rule, photographers should be as unobtrusive as possible and not disturb the view of visitors in the galleries,

(p) photographers shall observe the instructions of the President, or the President’s delegate, at all times, and

(q) non-compliance with these conditions by a photographer or media organisation may result in the suspension or withdrawal of accreditation.

Sound and audio-visual broadcast of proceedings and still photography of committee proceedings

4. That this House authorises a committee, by a vote of the committee, to:

(a) authorise the filming and broadcasting and still photography of its public proceedings by accredited members of the Parliamentary Press Gallery,

(b) authorise the filming and broadcasting and still photography of its public proceedings by a person or organisation not an accredited member of the Parliamentary Press Gallery on an undertaking by the person or organisation, in writing, to comply with the terms and conditions set out in this resolution and any other terms and conditions determined by the committee,

(c) authorise the broadcast and rebroadcast of its public proceedings in the Legislative Council chamber on the terms and conditions set out in paragraph 2,

(d) give instructions for the observance of terms and conditions determined not inconsistent with this resolution, and

(e) order that part of its proceedings not be recorded or broadcast.

5. That if a committee authorises the filming or broadcast or still photography of proceedings, a witness who is to appear before the Committee in those proceedings must be given a reasonable opportunity, before appearing in the proceedings, to object to the broadcasting or televising of proceedings. The witness may state the grounds of the objection. The Committee must consider an objection having regard to the protection of the witness and the public interest in the proceedings. If the Committee decides to permit the broadcast or rebroadcast of proceedings despite an objection of a witness, the witness must be informed before appearing in the proceedings of the Committee.

Details of organisations and terms and conditions

6. That the President is to report to the House:

   (a) details of the persons and organisations authorised from time to time to receive the sound and audio-visual broadcast, and

   (b) details of additional terms and conditions determined under this resolution.
