Stephanie,

I had a question last week at the enquiry and I responded that there was an excellent book on Defence Procurement and Industry policy that is critical reading and explains some of the considerations for a medium power like Australia.

The book is:

Defence Procurement and Industry Policy – A small country perspective
Stefan Markowski, Peter Hall and Robert Wylie
Routledge Studies in Defence and Peace Economics

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Kind Regards

Chris Williams
