Re: Inquiry into Gay and Transgender hate crimes between 1970 and 2000

Good Morning Mr Mallard,

Further to our previous submissions I wish to put in the following:

- 1) In the matter of Cyril Olsen 1992, Strike Force Parrabell and Flinders University state Insufficient Evidence whereas Sue Thompson states : " Police at the time discussed case with Thompson and recorded it as a gay bashing" 9th April 2016
- 2) In the matter of the 4 gay police officers who are suing the NSW Police Force for homophobic discrimination, how much have the NSW Police Force spent on defending this matter and couldn't the matter have been resolved by a meeting of the Police Commissioner and the 4 gay officers and their legal representatives?
- 3) The last Royal Commission into the NSW Police Force commenced in 1994 and our members feel that owing to the evidence given in this Inquiry, it is time for another one,

Yours sincerely

Peter Rolfe
