

Aboriginal over-representation in the NSW criminal justice system - ADULTS

18% of all adults proceeded against to court by the police are Aboriginal

40% of adults who are bail refused when their court appearance is finalised are Aboriginal

23% of all court appearances involve an Aboriginal defendant

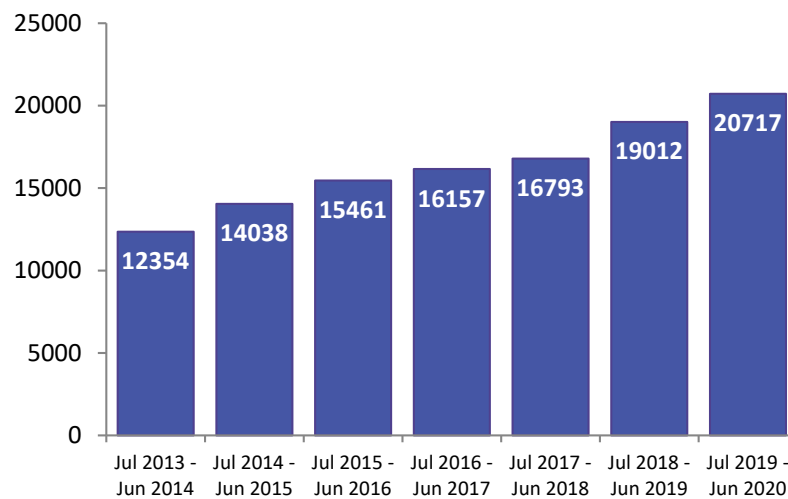

40% of prison sentences handed down by the courts are to Aboriginal defendants

25% of the adult prison population is Aboriginal

Police actions

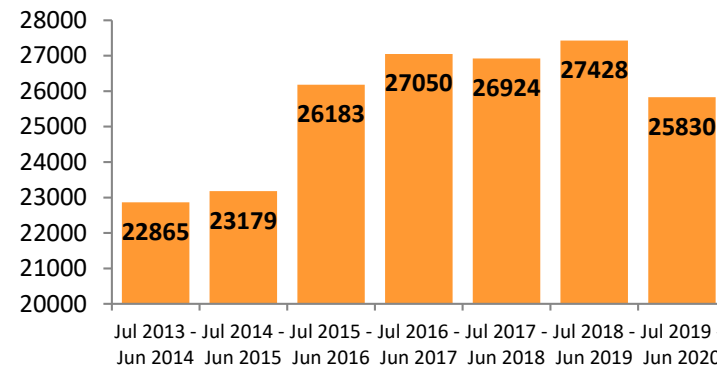

Aboriginal adults proceeded against to court

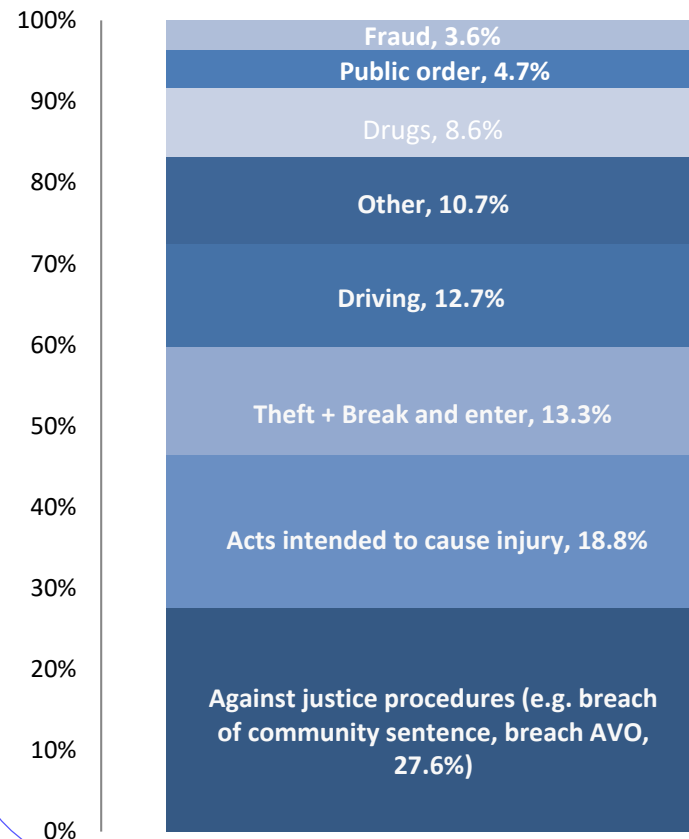

* Excludes driving offences

Court finalisations

Aboriginal adults with matters finalised in court

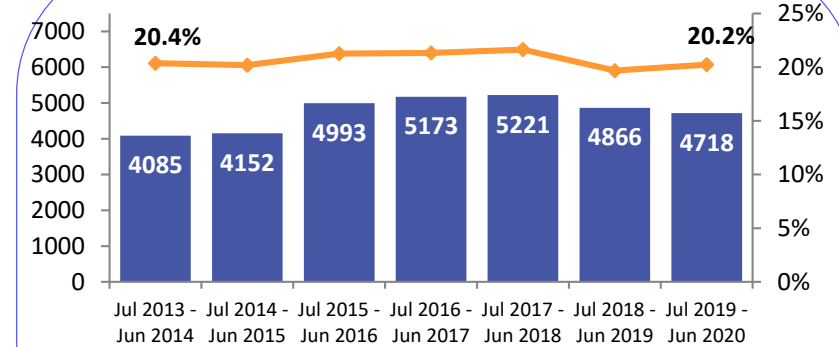

Court finalisations for Aboriginal adults by most serious charge

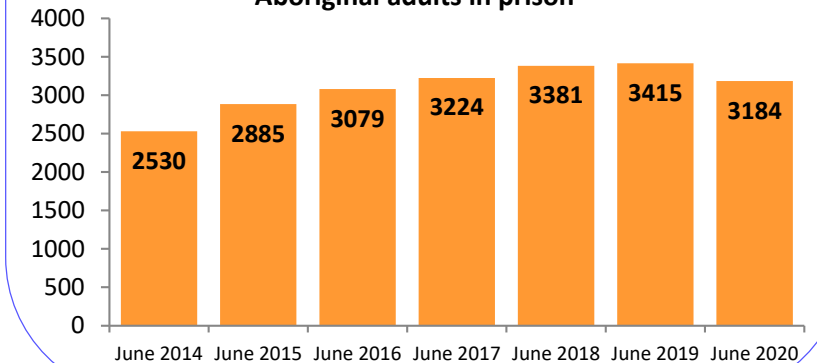

Custodial penalties

Aboriginal adults sentenced to prison

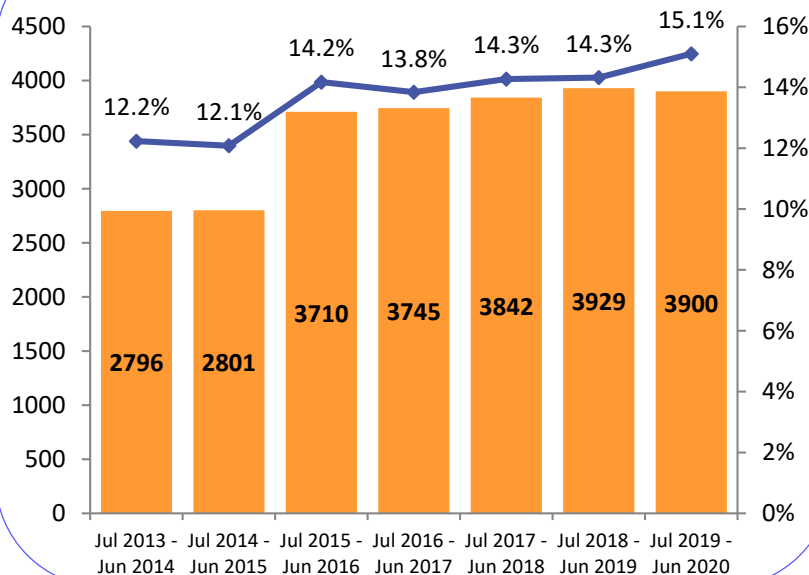

Aboriginal adults in prison

Bail decisions

Aboriginal adults refused bail at finalisation

Reoffending

Offender cohorts	% reoffending within 12 months* of 2018
	Aboriginal	All offenders
Adults in court	37.2	19.9
Adults released from prison	53.1	42.2
Adults released from prison - Personal, property, serious drug	38.9	29.4
Domestic violence offenders	16.8	11.2

* among the annual cohort ending 2018

 PP measure

Aboriginal over-representation in the NSW criminal justice system – YOUNG PEOPLE

35% of all young people proceeded against to court by the police are Aboriginal

62% of young people who are bail refused when their court appearance is finalised are Aboriginal

42% of all court appearances for young people involve an Aboriginal defendant

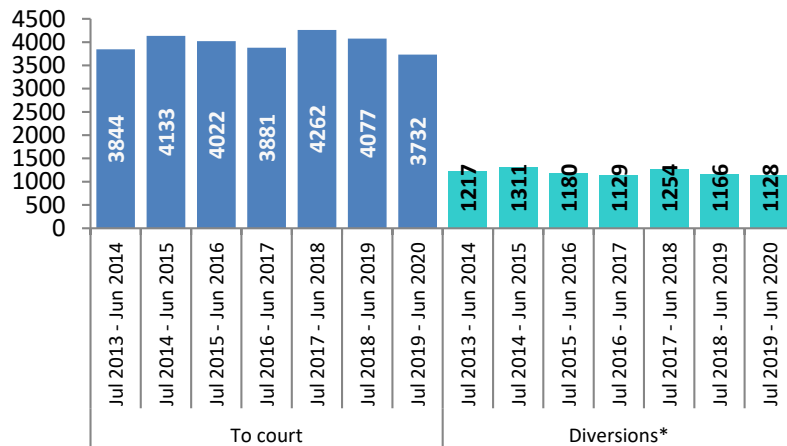

60% of prison sentences handed down by the courts to young people are to Aboriginal defendants

39% of the juvenile detention population is Aboriginal

Police actions

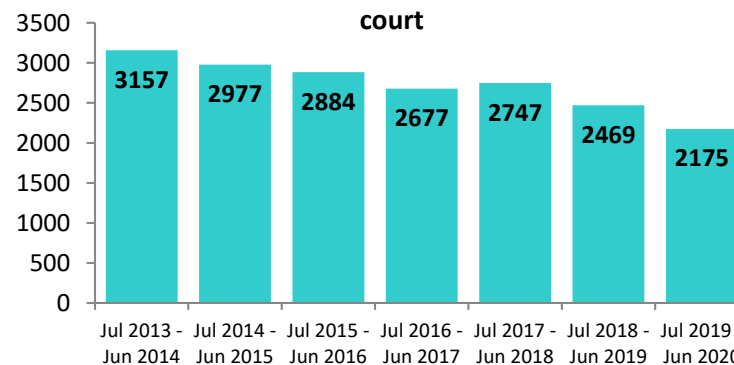

Aboriginal young people proceeded against by method of legal proceeding

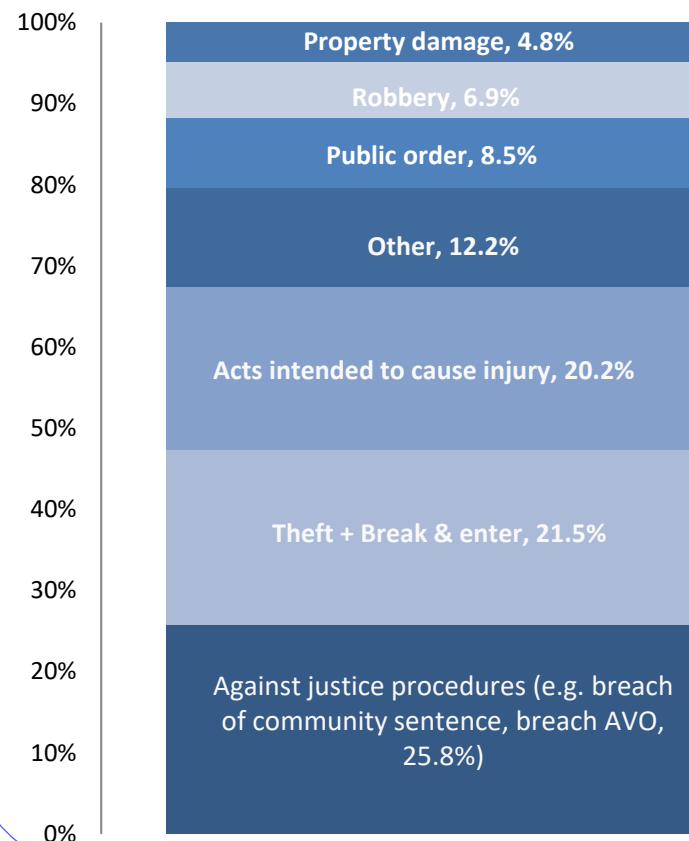

*Excludes driving offences. Diversion include YJC referrals and cautions under the Young Offenders Act

Court finalisations

Aboriginal young people with matters finalised in court

Court finalisations for Aboriginal young people by most serious charge

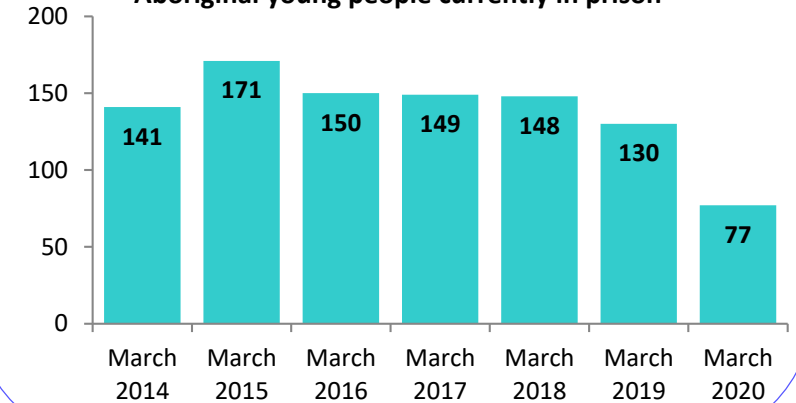

Custodial penalties

Aboriginal young people sentenced to prison

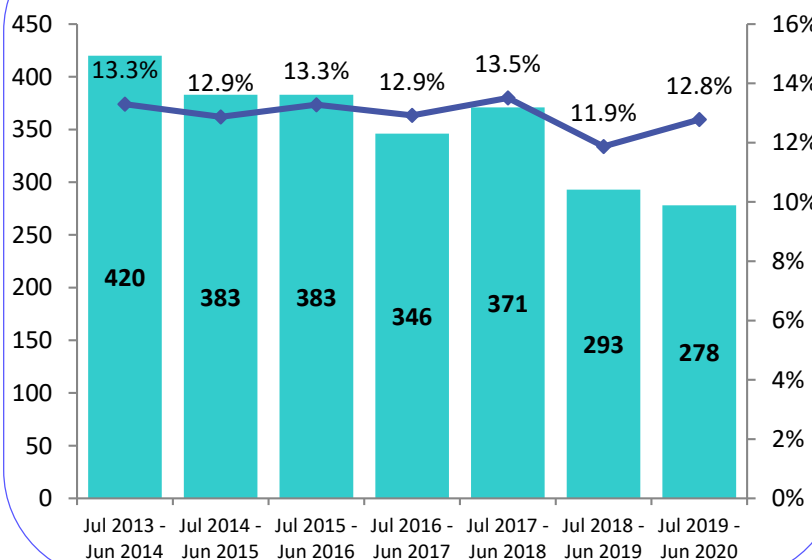

Aboriginal young people currently in prison

Bail decisions

Aboriginal young people refused bail at finalisation

Reoffending

Offender cohorts	% reoffending within 12 months* 2018
	Aboriginal	All offenders
Juveniles in court	44.1	36.7

* among the annual cohort ending 2018