

In reply to the question put by the Committee, I'm sorry to have been unclear. I meant that heritage items that have never been hotels, restaurants, bars, etc may be adapted to such uses in order to make viable their restoration and/or maintenance. Only in this instance would I expect that in considering such a change of use be mindful of potential impacts on the amenity of surrounding uses, especially residences.

Regards,
Terry Tredrea
Strategic planner
Lane Cove Council