

External providers who meet the requirements will be able to submit an Expression of Interest during Term 1, 2022 to have their wellbeing programs reviewed under the newly developed External Wellbeing Programs QA Framework.

In addition, the Department is building in increased engagement of students and parents to test the views of end users, in particular in relation to consent materials.