

Forestry Corporation NSW breaching – some recent media releases

(in approx. chronological order)

-  EPA continues to investigate logging at North Narooma | Narooma News
-  Forestry Corporation gets EPA warning over North Narooma logging breaches | Narooma News
-  NSW Forestry Corporation fined for damaging environment
-  EPA fines Forestry Corporation $15,000 for erosion incident
-  EPA fines Forestry Corporation of NSW $30,000
-  EPA fines Forestry Corp $16,500 for Gibberagee State Forest offence
-  Forestry Corporation of NSW fined $8,000 for licence breach
-  EPA issues three penalty notices for illegal logging
-  Forestry Corporation penalised for failing to protect threatened species
-  Forestry Corporation of NSW fined $8,000 for licence breach
-  Forest Corporation NSW fined $11,000 for private forestry breaches
-  EPA issues $43,000 in fines for forestry breaches on the North Coast
-  Forestry Corporation fined $31,100 after EPA investigation

Document tendered by

Mr Nick Hopkins

Received by

Peta Heemen

Date: 5 / 4 / 2022

Resolved to publish Yes / No

PTO

-  NSW Forestry Corporation convicted for environmental breaches – yet again | Nature Conservation Council of New South Wales Australia
-  EPA orders Stop Work on forestry operations in Wild Cattle Creek State Forest
-  EPA orders Stop Work on forestry operations in South Brooman State Forest
-  EPA prosecutes Forestry Corporation for alleged breaches in koala exclusion zones
-  'Unacceptable': Timber battles resume in fire-hit South Coast forests
-  Forestry Corporation fined $33K for failing to keep records, endangering parrots
-  Forestry Corporation fined for failing to mark out a prohibited logging zone
-  Nature Conservation Council calls for an investigation into breach of post-fire logging standards by Forestry Corporation | Bay Post-Moruya E:
-  NSW Forestry Corporation accused of felling giant trees in state forest
-  Forestry Corp fined $45,000 for logging habitat trees in Mogo State Forest - Nature Conservation Council of NSW
-  Renewed calls for NSW native timber industry to be scrapped after latest logging fines - ABC News
-  Forestry 'committed' to compliance after fines for illegal logging in Mogo State Forest | Bay Post-Moruya Examiner | Batemans Bay, NSW
-  Forestry Corporation fined $45,000 for felling habitat trees in Mogo State Forest | About Regional
-  Campaigners stumped by alleged breach in Mogo State Forest | About Regional