ELECTORAL COMMISSION

Questions from Ms Abigail Boyd MLC

Lowering the voting age

1. What would the NSW Electoral Commission require in order to prepare for 16-18 year olds to vote, on a voluntary basis, in a State or Local Government election, if the law were to be changed in order to permit it?
2. How long before an election would the NSW Electoral Commission require in order to facilitate this change?
3. What resources would be required in order to permit this change?

Questions from the Hon Taylor Martin MLC

4. In general terms, once an Electoral Commission investigation is complete and no wrongdoing is found, can the electoral commission advise publicly that a matter is closed?
5. Regarding the donations referred to in the Independent Commission Against Corruption's Operation Aero as ALP Chris Minns cheques:
 - (a) Who provided the donations?
 - (b) What steps have been taken to investigate the source of the ALP Chris Minns cheques?
 - (c) When did you first become aware of concerns from the Independent Commission Against Corruption over the ALP Chris Minns cheques?
 - (d) Did you receive any correspondence relating to the ALP Chris Minns cheques from the Independent Commission Against Corruption?
