48	The Hon. ROSE JACKSON: Mr Newport, Land and Housing Corporation disposals, 2021-22—how many properties were sold in the last financial year? SIMON NEWPORT: Thanks. There's a difference, obviously, between dwelling and land. Dwelling—so, homes—was 262. Land was 242. The Hon. ROSE JACKSON: What was the value of those disposals? SIMON NEWPORT: It was 456 and 268 million respectively. The Hon. ROSE JACKSON: Obviously, under the Land and Housing Corporation funding model, all of that money's been retained by Land and Housing? Yes?	It was 323 and 91 million respectively.
31	SIMON NEWPORT: I am not quite sure that is actually correct, and I am speaking certainly with my team in the Aboriginal Housing Office. I can absolutely attest that there was social housing delivered by the AHO in Bega. I won't give you the addresses, but I know a number of the projects personally that have been delivered over the— The Hon. ROSE JACKSON: There were none delivered by the Land and Housing Corporation. SIMON NEWPORT: Yes. There are four that are in the pipeline at the moment. I don't have the details, but there are four in Bega that are planned to be delivered. But you did say social housing, so I am certainly leveraging my experience with AHO.	Yes. There are five that are in the pipeline at the moment. I don't have the details, but there are five in Bega that are planned to be delivered.
