1. Section 443 (1) of the Local Government Act 1993 provides that you may have a pecuniary interest in a matter because of the pecuniary interest of your spouse or your de facto partner or your relative⁴ or because your business partner or employer has a pecuniary interest. You may also have a pecuniary interest in a matter because you, your nominee, your business partner or your employer is a member of a company or other body that has a pecuniary interest in the matter.
2. Section 442 of the Local Government Act 1993 provides that a pecuniary interest is an interest that a person has in a matter because of a reasonable likelihood or expectation of appreciable financial gain or loss to the person. A person does not have a pecuniary interest in a matter if the interest is so remote or insignificant that it could not reasonably be regarded as likely to influence any decision the person might make in relation to the matter or if the interest is of a kind specified in section 448 of that Act (for example, an interest as an elector or as a ratepayer or person liable to pay a charge).
3. A pecuniary interest may arise by way of a change of permissible use of land adjoining, adjacent to or in proximity to land in which a councillor or a person, company or body referred to in section 443 (1) (b) or (c) of the Local Government Act 1993 has a proprietary interest-see section 448 (g) (ii) of the Local Government Act 1993.

4. Relative is defined by the Local Government Act 1993 as meaning your, your spouse's or your de facto partner's parent, grandparent, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, lineal descendant or adopted child and the spouse or de facto partner of any of those persons.

- Section 443 (1) of the Local Government Act 1993 provides that you may have a pecuniary interest in a matter because of the pecuniary interest of your spouse or your de facto partner or your relative⁴ or because your business partner or employer has a pecuniary interest. You may also have a pecuniary interest in a matter because you, your nominee, your business partner or your employer is a member of a company or other body that has a pecuniary interest in the matter.
- Section 442 of the Local Government Act 1993 provides that a pecuniary interest is an interest that a person has in a matter because of a reasonable likelihood or expectation of appreciable financial gain or loss to the person. A person does not have a pecuniary interest in a matter if the interest is so remote or insignificant that it could not reasonably be regarded as likely to influence any decision the person might make in relation to the matter or if the interest is of a kind specified in section 448 of that Act (for example, an interest as an elector or as a ratepayer or person liable to pay a charge).
- A pecuniary interest may arise by way of a change of permissible use of land adjoining, adjacent to or in proximity to land in which a councillor or a person, company or body referred to in section 443 (1) (b) or (c) of the Local Government Act 1993 has a proprietary interest-see section 448 (g) (ii) of the Local Government Act 1993.

4. Relative is defined by the Local Government Act 1993 as meaning your, your spouse's or your de facto partner's parent, grandparent, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, lineal descendant or adopted child and the spouse or de facto partner of any of those persons.

MEMO

To: GENERAL MANAGER
From: MANAGER GOVERNANCE
Subject: PROTECTION OF PRIVACY – CLR EL-HAYEK
Date: 31 OCTOBER 2019

Clr El-Hayek has provided documents (attached) from the Australian Electoral Commission that confirms that his request for registration as a silent elector has been approved.

In order to be approved as a silent witness, a person must satisfy the Divisional Returning Officer (by completing a statutory declaration) that having their address on the electoral role would put them, or their family's safety at risk.

Clr El-Hayek is now seeking to protect his safety and the safety of his family under the provisions of section 739 of the Local Government Act. This section of the Act states, in part:

- (1) A person may request that any material that is available (or is to be made available) for public inspection by or under this Act be prepared or amended so as to omit or remove any matter that would disclose or discloses the person's place of living if the person considers that the disclosure would place or places the personal safety of the person or of members of the persons family at risk.
- (2) A person who may make a request under this section includes a person who is entitled to be enrolled as an elector
- (3) The request is to be made to the general manager or, in the case of the residential role for an area, the Electoral Commissioner
- (4) The request is to be in the form prescribed by the regulations, to give particulars of the relevant risk and to be verified by statutory declaration by the person making the request or by some other person
- (5) The person to whom the request is made may grant the request if satisfied that disclosing or continuing to disclose the matter would place or places the personal safety of the person or of members of the person's family at risk

Clr El-Hayek has met the requirements of section 739 (1, 2 & 3). In terms of section 739 (4) while Clr El-Hayek has not provided Council with a statutory declaration detailing the risk to him or his family's safety, he has provided Council with evidence that such declaration has been provided to the Australian Electoral Commission, and the Commission has accepted the declaration and declared Clr El-Hayek as a silent elector. Therefore, it is considered that a further declaration from the Councillor is not required. It is therefore considered that the General Manger can under the provisions of section 739 of the Act, approve the removal of Clr El-Hayek's address from documents currently available and any documents made available in the future, for public inspection.

Recommendation

THAT in accordance with section 739 of the Local Government Act 1993 the General Manager approves the request from Cllr El-Hayek to have his name removed from documents currently available and any documents made available in the future, for public inspection.

Dear Mr El-Hayek

Approval of Registration as a silent elector

Your request for registration as a silent elector has been approved. As a result, only your name with no address details will be displayed on the electoral roll for:

- Federal Division of Watson
- State District of Lakemba
- Local Government Area of Canterbury-Bankstown
- Local Ward of Bankstown Ward

The electronic roll, which is available to the public at all offices of the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC), has been updated so that only your name will be displayed. However, it is not possible to delete your address if it appears in copies of electoral rolls that are held in the public domain.

Please note that, even though your address is suppressed on the electoral roll, if you change your residential address, you must:

If you wish to register as a general postal voter please return the completed application using the provided reply paid envelope.
