Hi Tina,

I have read through the transcript and have no corrections to add.

Some additional points:

- The financial and psychological cost of birth injuries need to be further researched
- The impact of Birth Trauma on partners/husbands needs to be taken into account
- I am concerned that Midwifery Group Practice (MGP) is now being referred to as 'gold standard care'. I was a patient of the MGP program and it is far from 'gold standard' in my opinion. There is room for improvement in this program. The whole midwifery/birthing system needs an overhaul. And as I mentioned in my statement what is best is informed choice

At any stage I would welcome the opportunity to be a consumer representative for suggestions on changes as part of the hearings findings.

Kind Regards,
Amy Mageropoulos
