

PARLIAMENT OF NEW SOUTH WALES

MODERN SLAVERY COMMITTEE

MEDIA RELEASE

MODERN SLAVERY COMMITTEE TO HOLD HEARING IN GRIFFITH

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

17 June 2025

The NSW Parliament's Modern Slavery Committee will travel to Griffith on Thursday 19 June 2025 to hold its third hearing as part of its inquiry into modern slavery risks faced by temporary migrant workers in rural and regional New South Wales.

The committee will hear from local councils, advocacy and community groups and health organisations.

Dr Joe McGirr MP, Committee Chair stated: 'The committee is travelling to Griffith this week to hear directly from those who provide support to and advocate for victim-survivors of modern slavery in the region.'

'The committee appreciates the time taken by local stakeholders to provide evidence to the committee.'

Hearing details

The hearing will be held in the Cabaret Room at the Gem Hotel from 8.45 am. The hearing will be open to the public and live streamed on the NSW Parliament's website: <https://www.parliament.nsw.gov.au/Pages/webcasts.aspx>
