NSW POLICE FORCE

(2) Can you accordingly please advise:

- p) Can the committee be provided with a brief summary of the facts of each of the 367 matters? E.g., “person complained of being physically assaulted outside Synagogue” would be sufficient detail and an indication next to the summary of what charge were laid in relation to the incident if a charge/s was.

PREVIOUS ANSWER

No. Retrieving that information for each matter would require manual review of entries that is not feasible within the timeframe required to respond to the supplementary questions.

ADDITIONAL ANSWER

Operation Shelter began on 11 October 2023. During that time, a manual spreadsheet was maintained documenting all Shelter-related incidents that have occurred. The term 'incidents' encompasses Events, Intelligence Reports and Charges as recorded in COPS.

The spreadsheet was internally developed during the early stages of Operation Shelter to track incidents flagged as 'Shelter-related'. Given the frequent rotation of officers managing the Operation Shelter, the consistency and veracity of incident recording varied over time.

The NSW Police Force has reviewed all incidents, and a preliminary review suggests that a significant number of incidents do not meet the criteria for antisemitism; defined as prejudice or hatred directed at individuals based on their Jewish faith or cultural identity. In some cases, incidents were incorrectly categorised as “Antisemitic” solely on the basis that the person reporting or the victim was Jewish.

The below table outlines a brief summary of the facts of each of these matters. It also provides examples of some of the mis-categorisation and 38 duplications of incidents (highlighted in red).
