ANSWER

I'm advised:

At 30 June 2006, the number of passenger vehicles in the New South Wales Government motor vehicle fleet was 17,140.

There were also 8,732 other vehicles including commercial vehicles, Ambulances, buses and other specialised vehicles such as handicapped transporters in the fleet.

The composition of the passenger fleet has changed significantly over the past twelve months with small and medium now comprising the largest segment of the fleet at 38% whilst large passenger vehicle numbers have reduced by 14% to now represent only 36%.

In 2005 new guidelines were announced committing the Government to the use of biofuels and other alternative fuels as part of the Government's overall Cleaner NSW Government Fleet Policy.

From 1 July 2006, all government owned vehicles are required to use E10 blends (or other alternative fuels) where this is practicable, available and cost effective. This coincides with the commencement of a new whole-of-government fuel contract that includes biofuels.

Vehicles managed by the Department of Commerce's StateFleet are being issued with fuel cards specifically providing for the consumption of E10, where it is available.

Public sector officials who currently have Government owned vehicles as part of their remuneration package are also able to replace existing vehicles with hybrid vehicles when they are due for replacement.

Despite a change in the federal Department of Transport and Regional Services green vehicle guide rating system on 1 January 2006 the whole of government environmental performance score has increased from 9.55 at 1 July 2005 to 9.96 at 30 June 2006 against a target of 10. Without the change, the score would have been 10.

 - b. FY2001-02
 - c. FY2002-03
 - d. FY2003-04
 - e. FY2004-05
 - f. FY2005-06?
- ii) If not, did the Department otherwise publish a report on outcomes achieved for clients from multicultural and linguistically diverse backgrounds for each of the following financial years:
 - a. FY2000-01
 - b. FY2001-02
 - c. FY2002-03
 - d. FY2003-04
 - e. FY2004-05
 - f. FY2005-06?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

NSW Government agencies are required to implement the principles of multiculturalism in conducting their affairs. Public sector agencies incorporate these principles and objectives part in their core business through the Ethnic Affairs Priorities Statement (EAPS) Standard Framework.

EAPS provides a framework for agencies to address the needs of a culturally diverse society according to their charter and integrate these needs into the agency's core business and services.

Agencies are required to prepare EAPS plans and review them on an annual basis.

All agencies are required to report on the progress made in implementing EAPS in the past year and the key ethnic affairs strategies proposed for the following year/s.

The Community Relations Report 2005 provides an account of the programs and initiatives pursued by NSW Government agencies in implementing the Principles of Multiculturalism.

The reports contains a selection of initiatives that have been submitted to the Commission as examples of how public sector agencies are providing services to our culturally diverse society. The report is publicly available from the Community Relations Commission website at www.crc.nsw.gov.au.

3. Diversity costs

With respect to each Department, Agency and Entity that the Minister is responsible for:

- i) What were the costs associated to the Department of providing culturally responsive and accessible services for each of the following financial years:

 - a. FY2002-03
 - b. FY2003-04

 - d. FY2005-06?
- iii) How much did the Department budget for this purpose for FY2006-07?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The NSW Government is committed to the Principles of Multiculturalism and Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO). The government recognises the benefits in employing staff from Non English Speaking Backgrounds (NESB).

New South Wales is one of the most culturally diverse communities in Australia with people from around 140 birthplaces and around 26% of the population speak a language other than English at home.

Through the EAPS Framework, the government is committed to responding to needs of a culturally diverse community when delivering programs and services.

The government recognises that a culturally diverse workplace can promote equity and enhances staff skills and agency success.

Community language skills and cultural competencies are valuable assets to an agency. Service delivery can improve when agency staff understand and can communicate skilfully with clients from a range of backgrounds.

The percentage of NESB employees is publicly reported in agency annual reports.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

Under section 14 of the Freedom of Information Act 1989 agencies publish a list of publications and other promotional materials in a six monthly summary of affairs which appears in the Government Gazette and in an annual statement of affairs which are usually contained in publicly available annual reports.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

ANSWER

I'm advised:

As part of the Ethnic Affairs Priorities Statement (EAPS) Standard Framework, agencies are required to employ strategies to ensure services are equitable and accessible to all sections of the community.

An agency's service delivery can improve when staff understand and can communicate skilfully with clients from a range of backgrounds. The community may also identify with and relate to agencies that reflect its level of diversity.

Community language skills and cultural competencies are valuable assets to an agency. The Personnel Handbook which is publicly available at www.premiers.nsw.gov.au makes provision for the payment of a Community Language Allowance Scheme (CLA).

To be eligible for the CLA, employees must pass one or both of two examinations and be nominated by their department.

They must also be:

- public contact staff, counter staff or other clerical staff who, owing to their language skills, are required to deal with public enquiries;
- prepared to be identified as possessing a non-English language skill for the purpose of the work of their department;
- available to use the language skill as required by the department; and
- recognised by their department as occasional or regular users of their language skill as an adjunct to their normal duties.

Further details on the policy is contained in the Personnel Handbook.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

 - a. language translators
 - b. language interpreters?
- vii) For each language in which a translator was engaged, how many engagements occurred in each of the following years:
 - a. FY2002-03

- ix) What was the total cost (broken down according to language) of the engagement of translators in each of the following years:
 - a. FY2002-03
 - b. FY2003-04
 - c. FY2004-05
 - d. FY2005-06
- x) What was the total cost (broken down according to language) of the engagement of translators in each of the following years:
 - a. FY2002-03
 - b. FY2003-04
 - c. FY2004-05
 - d. FY2005-06?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

As part of the Ethnic Affairs Priorities Statement (EAPS) Standard Framework, agencies are required to employ strategies to ensure services are equitable and accessible to all sections of the community.

These strategies may include the use of interpreters to communicate with agency clients. Service delivery can improve when agency staff understand and can communicate skilfully with clients from a range of backgrounds.

The Language Services Division of the Community Relations Commission provides an interpreter and translation service that is available to NSW public sector agencies. The Division works with government agencies to provide opportunities for the professional development of interpreters and translators and to improve availability of language services in Sydney metropolitan, regional and rural areas.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

8. Print advertising

With respect to each Department, Agency and Entity that the Minister is responsible for:

- i) How much was spent on advertising or advertorial in the ethnic print media during each of the following years:
 - a. FY2002-03
 - b. FY2003-04

 - c. FY2004-05
 - d. FY2005-06?
- iii) What is the amount budgeted in FY2006-07 for expenditure on advertising or advertorial in ethnic print media?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The Government completed a review of advertising practices across NSW Government and issued new advertising requirements that came into effect on 1 July 2005.

These requirements applied to the advertising of recruitment, tenders, statutory and regulatory notices, important public information and campaign advertising.

Changes to the Government's advertising policy were announced in Premier's Circular 2006-26 : Changes to Government Advertising Policy.

To achieve savings, all advertisements will now be consolidated in a single government advertisement under the masthead NSW Government Noticeboard.

Those changes include:

1. Improving access to details of job vacancies by publishing the Government's composite recruitment advertisement in both The Sydney Morning Herald and The Daily Telegraph each Saturday; and
2. consolidating all important public information and statutory notices into a single government advertisement that appears each Wednesday in The Sydney Morning Herald and The Daily Telegraph.

In 2005/2006, advertising expenditure by budget dependent and self-funded was $55.3 million and comprised of Community Awareness advertising of $39.3 million and Public Notices/Information advertising of $16 million.

I'm further advised the Howard Government has allocated at least $250m in the 2006/07 Budget for 13 advertising campaigns including:

- $52.1m Private Health Insurance Campaign claiming to increase consumer awareness of the incentives and benefits associated with private health insurance;
- $47.3m Smartcard Awareness Campaign claiming to ensure all Australians are aware of the processes for registering for the card;
- $36.1m Child Support Reforms to increase awareness of the changes; and
- $15m Independent Contractors (AWA) communications campaign.

The $250m is in addition to the $130m advertising placement spent for the current financial year making a combined total of $380 million.

The Howard Government has spent over $1.1 billion on advertising since it came to office in 1996.

9. Radio advertising

With respect to each Department, Agency and Entity that the Minister is responsible for:

i) How much was spent on advertising or advertorial on ethnic radio in each of the following years:

- c. FY2004-05
- d. FY2005-06?

ii) Please provide details of which radio station was used in each instance, the language in which it was broadcast and the Department's total annual spend on advertising and advertorial in each language at each radio station in each of the following years:

- a. FY2002-03
- b. FY2003-04
- c. FY2004-05
- d. FY2005-06?

iii) What is the amount budgeted in FY2006-07 for expenditure on advertising or advertorial on ethnic radio?

 - d. FY2005-06?
- iii) What is the amount budgeted in FY2006-07 for expenditure on the services of an intermediary service provider, such as another level of government or a non-government organization, for delivery of Departmental programs or services?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

Each year the NSW Government acquires and builds significant assets, goods and services including computer and communication technology infrastructure and systems.

The Department of Commerce (Commerce) works with government agencies to develop significant strategies and plans to deliver value, minimise costs and manage risk in the construction and management of assets, procurement and management of information and communication technology and the procurement of goods and services.

Commerce also provides, as part of a broader government network, services to project manage emergency incidences and to deliver projects of state significance.

Key procurement services provided include establishing and administering aggregated goods and services, standing period contracts, design and delivery of efficient and effective procurement systems and best practice guidelines, online procurement tools and services and the review of projects across their procurement lifecycle.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

11. Intermediary Service Providers - Accountability

With respect to each Department, Agency and Entity that the Minister is responsible for:

- i) How many Departmental programs or services were delivered using an intermediary service provider, such as another level of government or a non-government organization, in each of the following years:
 - a. FY2002-03
 - b. FY2003-04
 - c. FY2004-05
 - d. FY2005-06?
- ii) Did contracts with intermediary service providers used for delivering the Departmental programs or services identified above specify access and equity accountabilities (eg. collection and reporting of information on client characteristics) as part of their funding conditions?
- iii) For each of these, is the condition a standard clause? If so, can the Department supply a copy of the standard clause used in the contracts?
- iv) If the Department does not use a standard clause in these contracts, can the Department provide a copy of the various conditions used in its service contracts with intermediary service providers used for delivering the Departmental programs or services?
- v) Does the Department audit its contracts with intermediary service providers used for delivering the Departmental programs or services to ensure compliance with any funding conditions specifying access and equity accountabilities (standard clauses or otherwise)? If so, please supply details of the results of these audits.

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The Auditor General audits the expenditure of agencies as provided in the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983. The audit process provides an independent assessment of agencies financial situation. Internal audit procedures are guided by information supplied by NSW Treasury which is publicly available at www.treasury.nsw.gov.au, in particular Treasury Policy and Guideline Papers TPP95a (Statement of Best Practice – Internal Control and Audit) and TPP95b (Internal Control and Assessment) and Treasurer's Directions 720.01-.03 (Internal Control and Internal Audit).

Shared Corporate Services are leading practice for corporate services delivery, through the benefits of economies of scale, access to expert advice, better customer service, transparency of information and on-line access for users and clients.

The NSW Government has endorsed a Shared Corporate Services Strategy to enable public sector agencies to significantly improve corporate services delivery, realise the benefits of technologies and reduce costs.

The Shared Corporate Services concept capitalises on recent developments in corporate IT applications, which eliminate much of the routine manual transactions and make remote provision of services an efficient and effective option.

Prospective Providers need to demonstrate that they are able to provide an efficient, effective and appropriate service without compromising their core business. Providers need to demonstrate their commitment to providing services over a period of time and in accordance with criteria developed to assist the transparent assessment of potential providers by central agencies, potential clients and the providers themselves.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

12. Engagement of contractors by the Department – need identification

With respect to each Department, Agency and Entity that the Minister is responsible for:

- i) Please provide the following information concerning those occasions during FY2005-06 when the need for a contractor was established within the Department, thereby necessitating the engagement of a contractor or contractors to undertake and/or execute any project or task:
 - a. the name or names of the contractor or contractors engaged in each instance;
 - b. the project or task the contractor or contractors were engaged to perform in each instance;
 - c. the actual amount paid to the contractor or contractors in each instance, indicating where relevant the extent to which this amount exceeded the projected cost for the contract.
- ii) Please provide the following information concerning those occasions during FY2005-06 to date when the need for a contractor has been established within the Department thereby necessitating the engagement of a contractor or contractors to undertake and/or execute any project or task:
 - a. the name or names of the contractor or contractors engaged in each instance;
 - b. the project or task the contractor or contractors were engaged to perform in each instance;
 - c. the actual amount paid to the contractor or contractors in each instance.

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The use of contractors is limited to areas in which the agency does not have the necessary skills or specific expertise to effectively and efficiently undertake a required project or task. As well as establishing a need, it is standard practise to forecast contractor costs in order to conduct a cost-benefit analysis prior to making a decision of engagement. Contractors' work is monitored and evaluated to ensure that objectives and milestones specific to the project are met within the agreed budget and time-frame.

The Auditor General audits of agencies expenditure as required by the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983 and this audit process provides an independent assessment of agencies financial situation. Internal audit procedures are guided by information supplied by NSW Treasury which is publicly available at www.treasury.nsw.gov.au, in particular Treasury Policy and Guideline Papers TPP95a (Statement of Best Practice – Internal Control and Audit) and TPP95b (Internal Control and Assessment) and Treasurer's Directions 720.01-.03 (Internal Control and Internal Audit).

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

 - a. the estimated or forecast cost of engaging a contractor or contractors to undertake and/or execute the relevant project or task and a description of the project or task involved;
 - b. the name or names of the contractor or contractors engaged to undertake and/or execute the project or task and whether the work performed by the contractor or contractors met the objectives and milestones specific to the project within the agreed budget and time-frame
 - c. the extent to which the amount the contractor or contractors received exceeded the agreed budget and time-frame and/or any estimated or forecast cost in the cost benefit analysis prepared by the Department.
- iii) During FY2005-06, has a cost-benefit analysis been prepared within the Department prior to making a decision to engage a contractor or contractors in every instance?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The use of contractors is limited to areas in which the agency does not have the necessary skills or specific expertise to effectively and efficiently undertake a required project or task. As well as establishing a need, it is standard practise to forecast contractor costs in order to conduct a cost-benefit analysis prior to making a decision of engagement. Contractors' work is monitored and evaluated to ensure that objectives and milestones specific to the project are met within the agreed budget and time-frame.

The Auditor General audits of agencies expenditure as required by the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983 and this audit process provides an independent assessment of agencies financial situation. Internal audit procedures are guided by information supplied by NSW Treasury which is publicly available at www.treasury.nsw.gov.au, in particular Treasury Policy and Guideline Papers TPP95a (Statement of Best Practice – Internal Control and Audit) and TPP95b (Internal Control and Assessment) and Treasurer's Directions 720.01-.03 (Internal Control and Internal Audit).

The NSW Government is committed to providing family friendly working conditions for staff. Employees under the Crown Employees (Public Service Conditions of Employment) Reviewed Award 2006 are covered by NSW public service wide initiatives such as:

1. The Public Employment Office (PEO) Premier's Department, Flexible Work Practices - Policy and Guidelines, provides a framework for implementing initiatives that assist employees to balance work and family responsibilities. Other options include career break schemes, part year employment and varying hours.

The three year traineeships program 2002-04 outcomes include 71 participants having completed the program. Twenty nine public sector agencies participated in the program and fifty successful trainees found permanent positions with these agencies.

Many agencies include high level information relating to the employment of people with a disability in annual reports, which are publicly available.

The recently released Retirement Intentions Survey: Report and Findings will help the Government plan and manage the ageing Public Sector workforce to ensure that experience and expertise is retained by agencies.

Expenditure on taxi fares is either for official travel to ensure staff can attend meetings or to return home after late or shift work.

With regard to entertainment expenses, Premier's Memorandum M2005-12 outlines sector-wide requirements, prohibiting the expenditure of State funds on any event that could provide predominantly personal benefit to NSW public sector employees.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The Government cooperates closely with all stakeholders, including for example business and farming communities to develop appropriate policies and programs for the people of NSW.

In rural and regional NSW, the Government has established a range of mechanisms to encourage participation and develop a collaborative approach to policy making and service delivery.

In 1996, the Government established the Regional Communities Consultative Council to ensure the Government is informed on the issues facing people in rural and regional NSW. In 1997, the Government appointed a Minister for Regional Development and a Minister for Rural Affairs to give rural and regional communities a stronger voice in Government decision making.

Another key component of these efforts is the Regional Coordination Program. The Program has placed 10 Regional Coordinators across metropolitan and regional New South Wales, providing Government and communities with a strong network for the strategic management of projects and issues.

The Government has relocated several government agencies and numerous staff into rural and regional NSW to improve services in these areas and increase employment opportunities.

Extensive consultation has also been undertaken by the Government in the development of the State Plan launched on 8 August 2006.

Up to 2,500 members of the public were invited to attend Community Forums across NSW attended by the Premier, Ministers and senior public servants.

The Community Forums provide valuable feedback on important challenges and priorities across NSW. Full analysis of the detailed outcomes from the Community and other regional stakeholder forums will inform the development of the final State Plan.

The people of NSW also have an opportunity to provide comment and submissions on the Draft State Plan through the website at www.nsw.gov.au/stateplan.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

i) How much was spent on advertising or advertorial in the print media in regional NSW in each of the following years:

- c. FY2004-05
- d. FY2005-06?

iii) What is the amount budgeted in FY2006-07 for expenditure on advertising or advertorial in the print media in regional NSW?

ANSWER:

I'm advised:

The Government completed a review of advertising practices across government and issued new advertising guidelines on 1 July 2005.

These requirements apply to the advertising of recruitment, tenders, statutory and regulatory notices, important public information and campaign advertising.

Further amendments to the Government's advertising policy were made in Premier's Circular 2006-26: Changes to Government Advertising Policy which is publicly available at www.premiers.nsw.gov.au.

To achieve savings, all advertisements will now be consolidated in a single government advertisement under the masthead NSW Government Noticeboard.

Changes include:

- Improving access to details of job vacancies by publishing the Government's composite recruitment advertisement in both The Sydney Morning Herald and The Daily Telegraph each Saturday and,
- Consolidating all important public information and statutory notices into a single government advertisement that appears each Wednesday in The Sydney Morning Herald and The Daily Telegraph.

In 2005/2006, advertising expenditure by budget dependent and self-funded was $55.3 million and comprised of Community Awareness advertising of $39.3 million and Public Notices/Information advertising of $16 million.

I'm further advised the Howard Government has allocated at least $250m in the 2006/07 Budget for 13 advertising campaigns including:

- $52.1m Private Health Insurance Campaign claiming to increase consumer awareness of the incentives and benefits associated with private health insurance;
- $47.3m Smartcard Awareness Campaign claiming to ensure all Australians are aware of the processes for registering for the card;
- $36.1m Child Support Reforms to increase awareness of the changes; and
- $15m Independent Contractors (AWA) communications campaign.

The $250m is in addition to the $130m advertising placement spent for the current financial year making a combined total of $380 million.

The Howard Government has spent over $1.1 billion on advertising since it came to office in 1996.

 - d. FY2005-06?
- ii) Please provide details of which radio station was used in each instance, the subject matter of the advertising or advertorial concerned and the total annual spend on advertising and advertorial at each radio station in each of the following years:
 - e. FY2002-03
 - f. FY2003-04
 - g. FY2004-05
 - h. FY2005-06?
- iii) What is the amount budgeted in FY2006-07 for expenditure on advertising or advertorial on radio in regional NSW?

- v) Has the Department sought to ascertain whether the staff member or staff members tasked with handling with FOI applications received by the Department is or has previously been a member of any political party/organization?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The policy and procedures on the processing of Freedom of Information applications are detailed in the publication FOI Procedure Manual which is available on the Premier's Department website at www.premiers.nsw.gov.au. The web site contains other useful information for agencies and the public including:

- application forms;
- Guidelines for Using FOI in NSW;
- Summary of Affairs;
- Statement of Affairs;
- The Freedom of Information Act 1989;
- Information on Review and Appeals.

In collaboration with the Office of the Ombudsman and The Cabinet Office, Premier's Department is in the process of finalising a new FOI Manual.

Section 14 of the Freedom of Information Act 1989 prescribes the information that must be published by an agency in its Statement of Affairs and its Summary of Affairs. This specifically includes the procedures and contact officers for FOI requests in the agency for members of the public. The Statement of Affairs is usually published in an agencies annual report.

The Premier's Department Personnel Handbook, which is publicly available provides that public servants may be members of political parties as long as this position does not conflict with their primary duty. The Handbook also ensures appointments to positions within the public sector adhere to a competitive merit selection process.

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The NSW Occupational Health and Safety Act 2000 aims to protect the health, safety and welfare of people at work, by providing general requirements to be met at every place of work in NSW. The Act covers employees as well as employers and self-employed people.

NSW government agencies are required to identify the causes of work related injury and illness affecting their employees, conduct a risk assessment of the workplace hazards, work practices or other identified causes of workplace injury and illness and develop and implement the appropriate prevention and control policies dealing with work-related injury and illness.

The Government has released its Working Together – The Public Sector OHS and Injury Management Strategy for 2005-2008, which is a three year strategy to secure improvements in the public sector's health and safety performance with a specific focus on injury management. It builds on the progress made since the release of the Government's OHS and injury management policy and guidelines Taking Safety Seriously.

The Personnel Handbook, which is publicly available, outlines the policy for managing absences due to sickness to ensure that absences are for genuine illness and employees are allowed the necessary time to properly recover before returning to work. The Policy requires managers to regularly monitor and review absences due to illness within the agency.

To check each leave application form would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

- 43. Departmental staff – compensation for private property With respect to each Department, Agency and Entity that the Minister is responsible for:

 - e. if the claim was rejected by the insurer, whether the compensation paid to the employee was the amount necessary to repair the item or an amount for replacement of the item.

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The policy on compensation for loss or damage to private property is contained in the Personnel Handbook which is available on the Premier's Department Website at www.premiers.nsw.gov.au.

If damage to or loss of the employee's private property occurs in the course of employment, a claim may be lodged under the Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998, or under any insurance policy of the department covering the damage to or loss of the personal property of the employee, or both of the above.

If the claim is rejected by the insurer, the department head may compensate an employee for the damage to or loss of private property, if such damage or loss:

- is due to the negligence of the department, another employee, or both, in the performance of their duties; or
- is caused by a defect in the employee's material or equipment; or
- results from an employee's protection of or attempt to protect departmental property from loss or damage.

Compensation is limited to the amount necessary to repair the damaged item. If the item cannot be repaired or is lost, the department head may pay the cost of a replacement item, provided the item is identical to or only marginally different from the damaged or lost item and the claim is supported by satisfactory evidence as to the price of the replacement item.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

 - b. what was the total value of such reimbursements in each of FY2003-04, FY2004-05, FY2005-06 and FY2006-07 to date?

I'm advised:

The Personnel Handbook, which is publicly available on the Premier's Department Website at www.premiers.nsw.gov.au, provides that if a private vehicle is damaged while being used for work any normal excess insurance charges prescribed by the insurer must be reimbursed by the department, provided that:

- iv) How has the number of staff in receipt of assistance and the total value of assistance provided to Departmental personnel for the cost of travel to and from work varied over the last three financial years?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The Public Sector Employment and Management (General) Regulation 1996, Part 5, Division 6 provides that an employee must bear the cost of travel to and from work, unless the department head otherwise determines or the following provisions apply:

- If the employee is directed to report for duty at a locality other than the locality at which the employee reported for duty at the beginning of the day; or

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The Occupational Health and Safety Regulation 2001 requires that adequate first aid equipment be available in reach workplace. If no medical or paramedical employees are employed, a first aid service must be provided by a person qualified to undertake that task.

Clause 54 of the Crown Employees (Public Service Conditions of Employment) Award currently regulates the payment of an allowance to a First Aid Officer.

First Aid Officers should hold a St John's Ambulance Certificate or equivalent qualifications (such as the Civil Defence or the Red Cross Society's First Aid Certificates) issued within the previous three years. First Aid Officers in charge of a first aid room in larger workplaces should hold an Occupational First-Aid Certificate issued within the previous three years.

The costs of training employees who do not already possess qualifications and who need to be trained to meet departmental needs, and the cost of retraining First Aid Officers, are to be met by Departments. (NSW Government Personnel Handbook chapter 7-7)

ANSWER:

Mobile telephones are issued to staff on the basis of need. The guidelines for mobile telephone use are set out in Premier's Department Circular 99-09. Mobile telephones are made available for business use. A business case has to be made for an officer to be provided with a telephone. This can involve the need to be able to contact the officer at irregular times or to seek specific advice on particular issues.

 - a. FY2002-03
 - b. FY2003-04
 - c. FY2004-05
 - d. FY2005-06?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

Treasury Circular 04/09 – Total Asset Management (TAM) Policy – Reconfirmation confirms the Government's commitment to the implementation of TAM policy.

Budget Paper No. 4 Infrastructure Statement provides the value of each agency's physical assets and their capital expenditure program. The value of each agency's physical assets is subdivided into land and buildings, plant and equipment and infrastructure systems.

The asset management policy for each agency is integrated with the budget process.

Budget sector agencies are advised to prepare TAM Strategies based on the agency continuing to provide agreed services within current resource limits. Agencies may also submit specific proposals for enhanced levels of service.

TAM strategies outline the long term maintenance strategies for each asset type or risk category, a costed program of proposed investment and maintenance works and a program of disposals.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

64. Unfilled Public Service Positions

With respect to each Department, Agency and Entity that the Minister is responsible for:

- i) Provide details of the number of full time equivalent staff positions in non-urban areas of the NSW which the Department/Agency/Entity currently has unfilled?
- ii) Please provide a breakdown of positions by staff classification and location?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

Agency relocations to rural and regional parts of New South Wales have been an important part of the Government's clear policy of encouraging employment opportunities and economic activity outside Sydney.

Over 1500 positions have been relocated since January 2000, bringing over $50 million annually in salaries alone into their communities. In the four agency relocations reviewed by the Auditor-General (Local Government, WorkCover, Mineral Resources, State Debt Recovery Office), almost 75% of positions were filled via local recruitment. Transfers of other staff from Sydney contributed to local population growth.

The overall economic impact on regions over and above the staff employed can be very significant. It has been estimated that, for the 200 positions relocated to Maitland with the Division of Mineral Resources, Department of Primary Industries, there is an annual economic impact of approximately $15 million, including supporting a further 130 jobs in the local community.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

 - a. FY2003-04
 - b. FY2004-05
 - c. FY2005-06 to date?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

Decisions on engaging and managing recruitment service providers are the responsibility of department heads, having regard to Government policies on efficient corporate services.

In filling vacancies, department heads are legally responsible for choosing the person with the greatest merit from among applicants. That responsibility applies when using recruitment service providers. Department heads also remain responsible for compliance with Government policies on equity, equal employment opportunity for target groups, and cultural diversity.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

66. Procurement Policy

With respect to each Department, Agency and Entity that the Minister is responsible for:

- i) When did the Department last update its procurement policy documentation?
- ii) What mechanisms does the Department have in place to ensure its procurement guidelines reflect current policy in relation to government contracting?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

Premier's Memorandum 2006-11 on NSW Procurement Reforms outlines initiatives to further improve procurement outcomes, get better value for taxpayers and reduce the operating costs of government.

The Memorandum supports the announcements on improving procurement outcomes made in the February 2006 Economic and Financial Statement.

Other key policy documents are the Treasury Circular TC 04/07 Procurement Policy Reform and Premier's Memorandum 2001-16 NSW Government Electronic Procurement Reform Implementation Strategy.

The Department of Commerce is responsible for co-ordinating the implementation of the procurement reform initiatives.

The reforms announced in Premier's Memorandum 2006-11 include:

- All agencies required to utilise the State Contracts Control Board (SCCB) for whole-of-government contracts, effective immediately
- Development and introduction of an agency accreditation scheme for goods and services by July 2007
- All major agencies to implement electronic procurement of their goods and services by June 2007, with smartbuy® being the Government's default electronic procurement system
- All agencies to make their Requests for Tender documentation and tenders available to be lodged through www.tenders.nsw.gov.au.

The requirements outlined in the memorandum apply to all Government agencies, including Statutory Authorities, Trusts and other government entities, except for State Owned Corporations.

ANSWER

I'm advised:

Decisions on engaging and managing recruitment service providers are the responsibility of department heads, having regard to Government policies on efficient corporate services and avoiding unnecessary spending on consultancies.

In filling vacancies, department heads are legally responsible for choosing the person with the greatest merit from among applicants. That responsibility applies when using recruitment service providers. Department heads also remain responsible for compliance with Government policies on equity, equal employment opportunity for target groups, and cultural diversity.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

 - b. FY2004-05
 - c. FY2003-04
 - d. FY2002-03?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

Air travel undertaken is for official government business only. Travel by Ministers and public sector employees are determined on the basis of value to the tax-payer and public sector development. Minister's travel is governed by the guidelines contained in the Ministers' Office Administration Handbook and travel by public sector employees is governed by various Premier's Memoranda and Circulars which are publicly available.

Overseas travel by agency staff is reported in the Annual Report of each agency.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

ANSWER

I'm advised:

Overseas travel by public sector employees is governed by various Premier's Memoranda and Circulars. Travel by public sector employees is determined on the basis of value to the tax-payer and public sector development. Travel undertaken is always on government business and essential for the performance of official business on behalf of the Government of New South Wales.

All overseas travel is subject to Minister's approval. Ministers are to exercise strict economy in approving overseas travel and significant benefits to the agency and/or the State must be demonstrated. Ministers may approve official travel overseas after deciding that the travel is essential and that it can be funded within the budget allocation for the organisation concerned.

Overseas travel by agency staff is reported in agency annual reports which are publicly available.

- a. FY2005-06
- b. FY2004-05

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The New South Wales Government Expenses policy outlines sector-wide requirements, prohibiting the expenditure of State funds on any event that could provide predominantly personal benefit to New South Wales public sector employees.

The Auditor General audits the expenditure of agencies as provided in the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983. The audit process provides an independent assessment of agencies financial situation. Internal audit procedures are guided by information supplied by NSW Treasury which is publicly available at www.treasury.nsw.gov.au, in particular Treasury Policy and Guideline Papers TPP95a (Statement of Best Practice – Internal Control and Audit) and TPP95b (Internal Control and Assessment) and Treasurer's Directions 720.01-.03 (Internal Control and Internal Audit).

 - d. FY2002-03?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

Employees covered by the Crown Employees (Public Service Conditions of Employment) Reviewed Award 2006 may receive the payment of overtime or time-in-lieu.

A staff member may be directed by the Department Head to work overtime, provided it is reasonable for the staff member to be required to do so. A staff member may refuse to work overtime in circumstances where the working of such overtime would result in the staff member working unreasonable hours. Separate provisions apply for overtime worked by shift workers and overtime worked by day workers.

Payment for overtime shall be made only where the staff member works directed overtime.

The Department Head shall grant compensation for directed overtime worked either by payment at the appropriate rate or, if the staff member so elects, by the grant of leave in lieu in accordance with the provisions provided under the Section 97 – Payment for Overtime or Leave in Lieu of the Crown Employees (Public Service Conditions of Employment) Reviewed Award 2006.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

 - b. FY2004-05

ANSWER

I'm advised:

Governments are required to communicate a wide variety of information to the public ranging from matters such as public health, community welfare and safety, public education and training, environmental and rural support, arts, tourism and business development.

The role and responsibilities of an employee's position may require for them to communicate important information including the department's activities to the public.

The Government is committed to building workforce capability of the public sector including leadership development and core public sector skill development.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

 - c. FY2003-04
 - d. FY2002-03?
- iv) What is the Minister's department's projected expenditure on legal services for 2006-07?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

NSW public sector agencies may engage the Crown Solicitors Office or private legal professionals to engage in non core (general) legal work for government agencies.

The Crown Solicitor acts for

- The State of NSW;
- Persons suing or being sued on behalf of the State;
- Ministers of the Crown;
- A body established by a law of the State
- An officer or an employee of the Public Service or any other service of the State or of a body established by a law of the State;
- A person holding office under a law of the State or because of appointment to that office by the Governor or any Minister of the Crown; and
- Any other person or body approved by the Attorney General.

Agencies must engage the Crown Solicitor to perform core legal services in respect of matters which:

- Have implications for Government beyond an individual Minister's portfolio;
- Involve the constitutional powers and privileges of the State and/or the Commonwealth;
- Raise issues which are fundamental to the responsibilities of Government; and

- Arise from, or relate to, matters falling within the Attorney General's area of responsibility.

- ii) For how long has each property, or part of a property, identified in part (1) been vacant and why has it been left vacant?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The NSW Government occupies 1.2 million square metres of office accommodation in over 1,000 buildings across the State.

As at 31 August 2006, the total amount of vacant space was approximately 5,380 square metres, which is only 0.44% of the total space occupied by Government, that is, less than half of one per cent.

This is a marked improvement on the vacancy rate of 2.23% that existed at 31 January 1995 under the Coalition: five times the Government's current vacancy rate.

The Government's current vacancy rate also compares more than favourably to the office market vacancy rate of 9.4% in the Sydney CBD at July 2006. (Figure supplied by the Property Council of Australia).

 - c. FY2003-04
 - d. FY2002-03?
- vii) Will the Minister provide details of who received payment and the value of payments for the translation of the languages outlined above

ANSWER

I'm advised:

As part of the Ethnic Affairs Priorities Statement (EAPS) Standard Framework, agencies are required to employ strategies to ensure services are equitable and accessible to all sections of the community.

These strategies may include the use of interpreters to communicate with agency clients. Service delivery can improve when agency staff understand and can communicate skilfully with clients from a range of backgrounds.

The Language Services Division of the Community Relations Commission provides an interpreter and translation service that is available to NSW public sector agencies. The Division works with government agencies to provide opportunities for the professional development of interpreters and translators and to improve availability of language services in Sydney metropolitan, regional and rural areas.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The New South Wales Government's policy is contained in the Personnel Handbook which clearly states:

A person is eligible to be appointed to a permanent position only if they are:

- an Australian citizen; or
- a permanent Australian resident.

People who are not Australian citizens or permanent residents are only eligible for appointment to temporary vacancies. People who claim to possess Australian citizenship should produce their birth certificate, current Australian passport, certificate of naturalisation or other relevant documentation.

Recruiting officers should require documentary proof of either Australian citizenship or permission to reside permanently in Australia before an offer of employment is made. Temporary residents of Australia may only be employed in certain circumstances and are ineligible for appointment as officers.

Only people who are permanent residents satisfy the citizenship requirements for appointment.

People with temporary entry permits not marked 'EMPLOYMENT PROHIBITED' may be employed in certain circumstances. People with authorisation to work from the Commonwealth Department of Immigration and Multicultural Affairs fit into this category. In all other cases, the Commonwealth Department of Immigration and Multicultural Affairs (Sponsored Entry Section) should be contacted to find out if employment is permitted.

80. Reservists

With respect to each Department, Agency and Entity that the Minister is responsible for:

 - f. 30 June 2005
 - g. 30 June 2006
- iii) What was the total value of compensation from the Commonwealth Government under the employee support payment scheme for employees who have been called up for active duty for the following periods:

 - b. FY2001/02
 - c. FY2002/03
 - d. FY2003/04
 - e. FY2004/05
 - f. FY2005/06

ANSWER

I'm advised:

Circular 2006-25 sets out the Government's policy on leave requirements for members of Australia's Defence Force Personnel which is captured in the Defence Reserve Service (Protection) Act 2001. Top up pay is also available for personnel on leave for military purposes.

Circular 2004-38 provides that, for leave in excess of the current military leave entitlement of up to 24 days for army and naval reservists and 28 days for air force reservists, public service employees will receive top up pay. This being the difference between their Reservist pay paid by the Commonwealth Department of Defence, and what they would ordinarily have received if they were at work. During periods of Top up pay the Government will maintain Reservist's superannuation, and Reservists will continue to accrue sick leave and extended leave entitlements.

The cost of the top up pay scheme will be offset, in part, by the operation of the Commonwealth's Employer Support Payment (ESP) Scheme, which is designed to compensate employers for releasing their employees for Defence Force service. The ESP Scheme only applies once an employee has been on military leave for at least 3 weeks per financial year.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The Model Code of Conduct for NSW Public Agencies sets out the guidelines for the conduct of public servants and establishes principles for a code for all public agencies. Specifically:

Employees are to treat members of the public and their colleagues fairly and consistently, in a non-discriminatory manner with proper regard for their rights and obligations. In this regard, they should perform their duties in a professional and responsible manner.

They should also ensure that their decisions and actions are reasonable, fair and appropriate to the circumstances, based on a consideration of all the relevant facts, and supported by adequate documentation.

Employees are to promote confidence in the integrity of public administration and always act in the public interest and not in their private interest. Employees should protect the reputation of public employers. They should not engage in activities, at work or outside work, that would bring the public service into disrepute.

Employees are to provide a relevant and responsive service to their clients and customers, providing all necessary and appropriate assistance and fulfil the department's service performance standards.

Further details of the Code are publicly available on the Premier's Department website at www.premiers.nsw.gov.au.

The Personnel Handbook also sets out the procedures and arrangements for dealing with the conduct of employees in a fair and equitable manner based on the provisions of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002.

The Independent Commission Against Corruption may also inquire into any allegations of corrupt conduct that occur in the public service.

ANSWER

The NSW Government occupies 1.2 million square metres of office accommodation in over 1,000 buildings across the State.

As at 31 August 2006, the total amount of vacant space was approximately 5,380 square metres, which is only 0.44% of the total space occupied by Government, that is, less than half of one per cent.

This is a marked improvement on the vacancy rate of 2.23% that existed at 31 January 1995 under the Coalition: five times the Government's current vacancy rate.

The Government's current vacancy rate also compares more than favourably to the office market vacancy rate of 9.4% in the Sydney CBD at July 2006. (Figure supplied by the Property Council of Australia).

The New South Wales Government is committed to providing a safe, healthy and productive work environment for all employees. To support this commitment, public sector organisations are encouraged to develop programs aimed at the prevention, reduction and/or elimination of problems associated with the misuse or abuse of alcohol and other drugs which affect employees' work performance, conduct or safety.

The Personnel Handbook outlines procedures for managing conduct and performance in the workplace. Other legislation and policies including the Premier's Department documents "Alcohol and Other Drugs: Policy and Guidelines" and "Assistance Services for Employees: Policy and Guidelines" are available for guidance in relation to managing some of these issues.

 - a. FY2005/06
 - b. FY2004/05

ANSWER

I'm advised:

Memorandum 90-50 issued by former NSW Premier Nick Greiner set out the policy on the payment of traffic infringements incurred by public sector vehicles. It states in part:

Payment of Parking Infringement Notices by Government bodies must be met from normal operating funds.

The Government does not pay parking infringements for public sector vehicles unless they are incurred in the course of and because of their duties as provided for in Memorandum 90-53 and it does not pay for traffic infringements.

Providing additional specific information in response to this question would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

I'm advised:

The Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 provides that a Department/Division Head may create, abolish or otherwise deal with any positions in their department other than the position of department head. Internal branch/unit structures of Departments are designed to ensure the most efficient and effective service is provided to the Minister and the people of New South Wales.

89. Mobile Phone Telephone Services

- i) What has been the cost of providing mobile telephone services to the Minister's staff since 1 July 2003 on a yearly and year to date basis?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

Mobile telephones are issued to staff on the basis of need. The guidelines for mobile telephone use are set out in Premier's Department Circular 99-09. As is the case in the public sector generally, in Ministers' offices mobile telephones are made available for business use. A business case has to be made for an officer to be provided with a telephone. This can involve the need to be able to contact the officer at irregular times or to seek specific advice on particular issues.

Officers are required to pay for private calls made on mobile telephones.

The cost of mobile telephones for the Premier and 20 Ministers' offices supported by Premier's Department and funded from the Department's allocation in 2005-06 was $478,283 (net of money reimbursed by employees for private calls). This is an average of about $22,800 per office.

By way of comparison, the mobile telephone costs for the Leaders of the Opposition were $24,552.

 - d. 31 March 2004
 - e. 31 March 2003
 - f. 31 March 1999
 - g. 31 March 1995?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

Fees and fines are determined either by the Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal which consults widely with stakeholders and the public before making a determination or by statutory regulation which is reviewed and may be disallowed by Parliament.

These are both transparent processes that allow the public and the Parliament to be consulted prior to implementation. Levels of fees, fines and charges are contained in the relevant act, regulation or statutory rule.

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The Model Code of Conduct for NSW Public Agencies sets out the guidelines for the conduct of public servants and establishes principles for a code for all public agencies.

Employees are to treat members of the public and their colleagues fairly and consistently, in a non-discriminatory manner with proper regard for their rights and obligations. In this regard, they should perform their duties in a professional and responsible manner.

They should also ensure that their decisions and actions are reasonable, fair and appropriate to the circumstances, based on a consideration of all the relevant facts, and supported by adequate documentation.

Employees are to promote confidence in the integrity of public administration and always act in the public interest and not in their private interest. Employees should protect the reputation of public employers. They should not engage in activities, at work or outside work, that would bring the Public Service into disrepute.

Employees are to provide a relevant and responsive service to their clients and customers, providing all necessary and appropriate assistance and fulfil the department's service performance standards.

Further details of the Code are available on the Premier's Department website at www.premiers.nsw.gov.au.

In addition the Independent Commission Against Corruption may inquire into any allegations of corrupt conduct that occur in the public service.

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The NSW Occupational Health and Safety Act 2000 aims to protect the health, safety and welfare of people at work by providing general requirements to be met at every place of work in NSW. The Act covers employees as well as employers and self-employed people.

Employees covered by the Crown Employees (Public Service Conditions of Employment) Reviewed Award 2006 are entitled to various forms of leave including: sick leave, recreation leave, annual leave, family and community services leave, personal carers' leave, maternity, adoption and parental leave, and special leave.

The Personnel Handbook outlines the policy for managing absences due to sickness to ensure that absences are for genuine illness and employees are allowed the necessary time to properly recover before returning to work. The Policy requires managers to regularly monitor and review absences due to illness within the agency.

To check each leave application form would be an unjustifiable diversion of public resources.

- i) What advertising campaigns were commenced? And for what programs?

 - a. creative agency or agencies; and
 - b. research agency or agencies, were engaged for the campaign.
- v) In the event of a mail out, what database was used to select addresses – the Australian Taxation Office database, the electoral database or other?

ANSWER

I'm advised:

The Government completed a review of advertising practices across government and issued new advertising requirements on 1 July 2005.

Those requirements applied to the advertising of recruitment, tenders, statutory and regulatory notices, important public information and campaign advertising.

The policies for campaign advertising were also revised with agencies to align planning with the budget process, and the introduction of an independent advertising peer review process for all campaigns with a budget of $50,000 or more.

The process of advertising tenders is coordinated by the Government Advertising Agency (GAA) which closely monitors advertisements and rejects those that do not meet the stipulated requirements.

Further changes to the Government's advertising policy were introduced in Premier's Circular 2006-26: Changes to Government Advertising Policy.

To achieve savings, all advertisements will now be consolidated in a single government advertisement under the masthead NSW Government Noticeboard.

Changes include:

- Improving access to details of job vacancies by publishing the Government's composite recruitment advertisement in both The Sydney Morning Herald and The Daily Telegraph each Saturday and,
- consolidating all important public information and statutory notices into a single government advertisement that appears each Wednesday in The Sydney Morning Herald and The Daily Telegraph.

WorkCover – Explosive Powered Tools (EPT) and Falsework/Formwork certification

95. Does WorkCover plan to remove the current requirement that operators of Explosive Powered Tools must have a certificate of competency issued by WorkCover?

ANSWER

The current arrangement with respect to issuing certificates is a state based system and it is not proposed that they be included under the national certification standard.

WorkCover is currently undertaking a review of the requirement for Certificates of Competency to operate Explosive Power Tools and to use Formwork/Falsework. If following consideration of stakeholder comment received as part of the review it is determined to introduce any changes, these will be made in a structured manner, aimed at minimising any negative impacts on stakeholders.

96. Does WorkCover plan to remove the current requirement that Formworkers must have a certificate of competency issued by WorkCover?

ANSWER

See response to Question 95 above.

97. When will public consultation take place on these issues?

ANSWER

WorkCover will be consulting with industry in relation to a proposed amendment to the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation 2001 to include a requirement specifying minimum training qualifications in lieu of a certificate of competency.

The public consultation strategy is currently being developed and is expected to commence before the end of 2006.

WorkCover – Construction Industry OH&S

98. How many authorities to conduct inspections in the construction industry has the Minister issued that are current?

ANSWER

WorkCover appoints inspectors under section 47 of the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2000. The instruments of appointment are known 'authorities'.

Under section 50 of the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2000 'an inspector has the power to enter any premises that the inspector believes is a place of work'. Every inspector appointed under the Act has the power to conduct inspections in the construction industry.

There are currently 313 inspector positions.

99. Is it true that authorities are not always issued to Inspectors? How many authorities to inspect are issued to staff other than Inspectors?

ANSWER

Under section 47 of the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2000, WorkCover may appoint as inspectors for the purposes of the Act and the regulations any of the following persons:

- (a) a statutory officer
- (b) a public servant
- (c) a person employed by a public or local authority
- (d) a person belonging to a class of persons prescribed by the regulations

Authorities are issued to key staff who have a role in the administration of the occupational health and safety, workers compensation and injury management legislation or are required to visit places of work as part of their role.

There are 26 such permanent staff which includes Departmental Professional Officers, Directors of the four Divisions within WorkCover's Occupational Health and Safety Division and the General Manager, Occupational Health and Safety Division.

100. Of the Inspectors, how many are in fulltime management positions and therefore not available for full-time field-based inspectorial work?

ANSWER

WorkCover has 313 inspector positions, the largest in the nation. Inspectors who are successful in being appointed into management positions with WorkCover become additional to the overall inspectorate. However, they remain in a position to provide management, guidance and training to support and develop the skills of the inspectorate.
