Dear Madam Chair,

Inquiry into the 2006-2007 Budget Estimates

I refer to your facsimile of today's date and my conversation with Ms Duffy when she confirmed you do in fact have a copy of the judgment of Judge Phelan. I advise I have no objection to the release of the judgment subject only to the deletion of identifying material. I also understand you have a copy of the transcript of the proceedings before Judge Phelan. I have not seen that transcript. However, there is also no reason that cannot be released subject also to the deletion of any identifying material.

I advise I do not have any objection to my letter of 28 November, 2006 and my reply to this letter being published as part of the Committee's proceedings.

Yours faithfully,
