

From: David Heilpern <davidheilpern@bigpond.com.au> To: Michelle Newbery <Michelle.Newbery@parliament.nsw.gov.au> Date: Friday, 26 August 2005 9:39
Subject: Re: Inquiry into community based sentencing options

Michelle,

As to question one, it is I think NSW Health, but I'm not sure. The hospital is called Chisolm-Ross and it is I think a public psychiatric unit connected to a hospital.

As to question two, my staff assure me they sent the paper. A copy is attached to save any further problems!

Regards,

David

Michelle Newbery wrote:

> Dear Magistrate Heilpern I was hoping you would be able to clarify a > point in your evidence for me. On page 44 (your copy may have a > different font and hence slightly different page number) of the > transcript you say that when you send a person to the mental hospital, > the closest one being Goulburn, you often receive a one-page report > saying the person is not suffering from a mental illness. Would you > know who provides the mental hospital service you talk about? Would it > be NSW Health? Also the Committee is meeting next week so I would > appreciate if you could please forward the question you took on > notice, which was to provide a copy of the paper you co-wrote on > section 12 bonds. Please send the paper to the Law and Justice > Committee, Parliament House, Macquarie Street, Sydney 2000. If you > have already sent it directly to Christine Robertson or one of the > other members, could you please let me know so I can follow up with > them. Any queries feel free to give me a call on 9230 3389. Thank > you. RegardsMichelle

