Please do not repeal the Education Act ethics 2010

As a parent of 4 children, I welcomed the amazing initiative of ethics classes in our primary schools . My 2 older children have missed out on this wonderful opportunity and have spent 6 years stapling the school newsletter whilst scripture classes where in session . My 2 younger children have benefited from a wonderful year of thought provoking debate and discussion. This opportunity should not be denied because of the bigotry of one man.If Fred Nile wants a review of these classes let there be a review of the scripture classes as well. I am sure they will not stand up with any scrutiny .
