

INQUIRY INTO SAME SEX MARRIAGE LAW IN NSW

Name: Name suppressed

Date received: 15/02/2013

Partially Confidential

It is my belief that a MARRIAGE is meant to be between a woman and a man. Marriage means a major commitment between two people of opposite sexes.

If misguided individuals want to change the Marriage Act in NSW for reasons of so called 'equality' then we married couples may have to find a new name for our legal and binding relationship.

Same sex couples can enter into a legal agreement and go through a commitment ceremony but they cannot must not have the name 'Marriage' stolen from the legal joining together of a man and a woman.