Re: Ethics School Course.

Dear Sirs

It is with regret that I read that the Government is proceeding with the introduction of the abovementioned course.

It is the churches that run the Scripture classes within the schools + they have been doing so since Education was first established by them.

Certain members of the Government believe that they know better than our Creator + therefore wish to replace Scripture with Ethics (so called) which is not Ethics but a nothing to confuse our children (nothing is right or wrong, there are no absolutes, it depends on the circumstances.) Whereas Scripture teaches the positions of Ethics, "Right + Wrong".

Yours sincerely,
John Haddock.

Joan Haddock.
