I wish to air my disgust in the proposed Ethics Classes which will be taught by people who don't know what they are doing in life let alone tell others how to live.

The only proven way of living a good clean life is and has been the teaching of the Bible where civilisation has been built upon its foundations.

It is very clear that where the laws of the Bible are not taught its people are primitive barbaric backward disfunctional and nothing but mayhem is a parent just look at our youth today, because their parents have turned their backs on the Bibles teaching, their children are drunk and disorderly & disrespectful.

Yours truly
