I strongly object to any decision to redefine marriage by the state. Marriage has existed between a man and a woman for centuries. It recognises the biological differences between men and woman and the necessity of both to create human life. It also provides a safe place for children to be brought up and nurtured. Any attempt to refine this is contrary to nature and denies children the right to a mother and a father. There already exist in law rights for same sex couples and no redefinition of marriage is needed.
