

INQUIRY INTO SAME SEX MARRIAGE LAW IN NSW

Name: Mr J. Patrick

Date received: 30/01/2013

There is no logical reason to deny same-sex couples the right to marry. These couples are just as capable as different-sex couples of having loving relationships and raising well-looked-after and responsible children. Legitimacy of same-sex relationships in the process of marriage is healthy for our society, because it teaches our children that we are mature enough to realise that indeed, everyone deserves a fair go. Marriage equality now.
