Darwin concluded that we all evolved (evolution) . . . Christians' know/believe that creation is the true story. Creation puts man and his spouse above all other creatures. A man and a woman can continue to be fruitful and multiply. A man and a man cannot. A woman and a woman cannot. Unless they use artificial methods. In evolution did any species use artificial methods to continue their species? am thinking NO. If Homosexuality was meant to be the acceptable benchmark alternative to heterosexuality then it would be able to reproduce on its own so as to sustain itself. Please also stop calling Homosexuals "Gay" it is not fair to them, because they are not happy as the true meaning of the word suggests. I accept Homosexuality as a way of life as it was predicted in the bible in the end times . . . but that doesn't justify it as being right. God Bless
