I do not agree with same sex marriage. marriage by definition is between a man and a woman. This has served society for 1000's of years. Marriage is more than just about a loving union. It is also about creating and raising children. By the very fact of nature a same sex couple can not have children, nor can they even if adopting or having a child by other arrangements, provide both a male and female parent. Children of same sex marriages will either miss out on having a father or mother. Men and women parent differently and bring different strengths. The value of the balance of a male and female is the basis of sound families which are the basis of our society.
