Marriage is a union between MAN & WOMAN. It is the ONLY way it was meant to be.
The traditional family unit is what the foundations of society have been built on. It is the BEST environment that children are brought up in, with a balance of male and female objectives, views and teachings.
Gay or lesbian unions are not what nature intended. There is no natural producing of children. Man was created to leave his parents and to join with the opposite sex and to create a new family.
Listen to what the MAJORITY of people want - to keep marriage and families AS THEY ARE NOW. It is MINORITY that want these ridiculous laws to be legalised.
The world is becoming crazy enough now, without adding to the madness in legalising gay marriage.
