Male and Female parents lead and teach a child in very different ways. and it is not until both are parenting together that a child is able to grow in an environment that supports a balanced identity. a child cannot learn to relate to the opposite sex in this environment and lacks the input of either a father or a mother working together. marriage is more than just about love, from the beginning of time God has 'made them male and female,' and said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh'. this is why marriage should remain to be the the bond between a man and a woman so a child can be raised in the image of both sexes
