

Submission
No 250

INQUIRY INTO EDUCATION AMENDMENT (ETHICS CLASSES REPEAL) BILL 2011

Name: Name suppressed

Date received: 24/02/2012

---

Partially Confidential

It is highly important to continue to offer ethics course to children who are not attending classes provided by religious groups. All children should have the opportunity to engage with and consider ethical issues as part of their education. It is discriminatory not to provide an offering to children who are not receiving education from organised religious groups.