

INQUIRY INTO SAME SEX MARRIAGE LAW IN NSW

Name: Name suppressed

Date received: 16/02/2013

Partially Confidential

Marriage is the unique relationship between a man and woman. which has existed throughout the world since the beginning.

The State should not have the power to redefine the meaning of marriage and thus alter that which the majority of people in cultures across the world accept.

A redefinement of marriage would allow children to be raised by same sex couples. This would deny children the right to be raised within their biological family.

Government policy should protect children rights.