Submission to the NSW Inquiry into TA

TAFE provides a unique benefit for all ages of people in Australia but primarily for young people to learn and be taught skills which will enable them after some years to qualify as tradespeople. . This will not only benefit the individuals themselves with their increased incomes but also the whole economy.

TAFE also provides a pathway for students who have left school to obtain a Higher Leaving Certificate and obtain the opportunity to obtain tertiary academic qualiications

this will not only benefit
