

INQUIRY INTO SAME SEX MARRIAGE LAW IN NSW

Name: Revd Timothy Ravenhall

Date received: 16/02/2013

In redefining marriage we are opposing freedom of speech. We are doing our own bit of revisionist history. We are taking an age old historical institution and burying it in the past. We are biting a very beautiful hand, a hand that at it's best has provided the stable society we now take for granted. It is indeed a desecration of free speech. To say I am not able to define a man and a woman's status in union apart from a man and a man's status in union is ludicrously unfair. Imagine if I wasn't allowed to define a motorcar against a motorbike!
