Hi my name is Ian Matthews and one day I Would Like To Marry my Partner Here in Australia, but at the moment I can't till it can be legal

so i am hopeing New South Wales can Make it legal in our state. my partner and I been togther now for 4 years now and i think its time for us to go and get married. but we Don't want to go over seas to be married we just want to be married Here in Sydney. and that Gay People should be allowed to get Married any where in Australia. and lets face it . it will Happen sooner or later anyway just look at the rest of the World. for example theres the UK . some parts of the U.S.A.

Canada. France. and Parts of Europe. so I can not see why us Gay People should not Get Married legaly here Australia ?
