To whom it may concern,

I am writing this submission concerning marriage equality because I believe that for a fair and just society, we need to ensure that the law reflects a fair and just society. Although these laws will not offer me any more freedom than I already have, I believe that these restrictions placed on love in our society are not just disheartening but are seriously effecting the lives and happiness of many of the citizens of our state.

I cannot stress how important it is to make the laws equal to reflect the principles that our Australia was formed.
