As a Christian, I can wish to defend the definition of marriage. Marriage is a union given by God where a man and a woman join together, enjoying the intimacy of sex, possibly produce children and share their lives together. I feel it is very important to Australian society (including in New South Wales) that the current legislation of marriage is upheld. Marriage as the union between a man and a woman has existed for millennia and I do not think it would be good for the government to redefine it nor should it
