

THE TRANSPORT NEEDS OF SYDNEY'S NORTH-WEST SECTOR

Name: Suppressed

Date received: 2/10/2008

Partially Confidential

Transport in Sydney's North-West is laughable at best. After systematic failure by successive labor governments to deliver on the constantly re-announced North-West Rail link, the labor state government has lost all credibility.

At times, journeys into the sydney CBD can take up to 1hr and 45mins. This is ludicrous, considering other areas get subsidised toll roads and quick heavy rail.

If you even want an example of how unbearable it is to watch bus after bus drive past you as they are full, I urge you to come and visit me for a day.