Submission into allegations of bullying in WorkCover NSW (Inquiry)

There are ongoing countless issues with bullying in the WorkCover
. The majority of bullying is done by however there are instances where have bullied staff more junior to themselves.

I have personally experience bullying from and the bullying has had a strong negative impact on both my working conditions and my morale in the workplace.

Below I will provide some more specific examples although this is not an exhaustive list and this shows only a small amount of examples of the bullying which occurs on a day to day basis in WorkCover.
