Re: Removing or reducing station access fees at Sydney Airport.

Dear Madam,

My husband and I live in the Sutherland Shire therefore it is convenient for us to travel to Wolli Creek and change to the Airport Line.

Travelling by train is certainly much cheaper than by taxi, however, it was a bit of a shock to have to pay the access fee when we can go to Newcastle, South Coast and Katoomba for $2.50 being pensioners.

Remove the fee and I am sure more people especially our age group will use the train. It would even be nice to go to the Air Port to watch the planes with the grand children if it was cheaper!

I read that hundreds of units are to be built at Green Square-if the owners are to travel into the CBD every day by train it cost as it stands at present would put them off.

Car parking at Mascot Airport is a no no for us and many of our friends -far too expensive hence a good train service with lower access or no access fees would be beneficial to all.

Thanking you for the opportunity to have a say in removing station access fees at Sydney Airport.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs June Wilson
