

Submission
No 674

INQUIRY INTO COAL SEAM GAS

Name: Mr Graham Dietrich

Date received: 14/09/2011

Too often cleverness holds hands with stupidity. CSG is an example of this, just because we have the technology does not mean we should do it. Especially when it is for foreign owned companies damaging Australia to send the gas overseas.

Past history indicates they will not clean up the mess afterwards. So who will pay for the environmental damage?