After last years decision to keep "Marriage" as it has always been defined why is the parliament again trying to change it.

Marriage is a life time committment made by a Man and a Woman and as they share this relationship together they provide the needs for children. You cannot have children from same sex couples only opposite sex couples and that is what our whole survival as a community is based on. We have enough sad and deprived children who do not grow up within the safety of a loving family please don't expose other s to this loss of father and mother. You only every get one family. Let's make the most of it
