

INQUIRY INTO SAME SEX MARRIAGE LAW IN NSW

Name: Name suppressed

Date received: 16/02/2013

---

Partially Confidential

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am not in favour of a redefinition of marriage, since the arguments put for it, as far as I can understand them, do not limit the redefinition to two-person units in loving, sexual child-friendly relationship. Why not marriages of three people? I do understand this is not being proposed now, but my question is whether it might be hard in future to refuse the self-evident 'justice' of further redefinitions.