Dear Sir/Madam,

I bring this submission in opposing the Ethics Course now in N.S.W schools.

We believe this course should be cancelled.

The course promotes humanism and can only leave children confused.

It does not teach what is right or wrong.

It is atheistic - does not mention God, Jesus Christ or the Bible.

All around us we see increased crime and lawlessness because men have turned their backs on God.

Under no circumstances should the Ethics course be in conflict with Scripture classes.

I support the right of parents to withdraw their children from Scripture classes to attend other activities such as reading or educational videos.

Yours faithfully,

George & Betty Crockett
