I find it hard to believe that state government would even waste our money in this when it has already been through parliament. Marriage as God intended it to be was all about family giving kids the balance of both a mum & dad. I have raised one son who does not know their father and to watch him go through the pain is so hard. He needs counselling even to manage the milestones of his children trying to work out who he is and what his natural father is like. Becoming angry at everyone who does love him, because he does not know why his father did not want to be in his life. Although his step father loves him and would do anything for him. It does not make up for the man who helped create him. We watch the need for mental health grow and grow and yet we keep taking away from what has always given us balance Family.

Australia has a lot to be proud of but slowly we are letting go of what has made us different from others. Our religion and our beliefs we can't even mention at school because of the minority but what about the rest of us who pay the taxes and don't seem to have a say because we are the majority.

This is my first ever submission and there are most probably many mistakes but it is my heart behind the matter. Marriage should be left alone until God himself changes it, which won't happen because He will always be the same, this is why we can depend on Him. He doesn't change the rules half way and expect us to keep up.

Please for generations to come leave marriage God's business and trust mums and dads to choose
