Subject: Inquiry into Post School Disability Programs

To Steven Reynolds

Dear Mr Reynolds,

I have just submitted on the on-line connection. However I am unsure as to whether the submission was accepted electronically. Therefore I am rewriting it in this format (as a back-up).

The Catholic Education Commission NSW has been involved in supporting students who move into DADHC Post School Disability programs for more than ten years. The number of students who require admission into "transition to work" and "community participation" programmes (previously ATLAS) has been steadily increasing each year. We have a real interest in the inquiry and it's outcomes as they relate to students progressing on to programmes from schools in the Catholic sector and would welcome the opportunity for further input.
