Dear Director,

I have got a better understanding of the horrendous treatment of greyhounds from a ex-federal police officer who now takes abused grey hounds in on his property in Canberra. He opened my eyes to how hideous and unspeakable the industry is in there treatment of these beautiful dogs.

I have spoken to many of my friends, family and business associates around the North Shore of Sydney (where I live) and they are disappointed in the NSW and Australian government that seeks to do absolutely NOTHING to stop this cruelty.

Furthermore, I agree with Ghandi when he says 'the moral progress of a country can be seen in the way they treat their animals'

If this is the case, NSW get your act together. This is honestly disgusting, and to the people in the government that have the power to do something, and DON'T - I do not know how you sleep at night.

Sincerely,

Kimberley Torr
