INQUIRY INTO EDUCATION AMENDMENT (ETHICS CLASSES REPEAL) BILL 2011

Name: Mrs Elizabeth M Noble

Date received: 10/01/2012

To the Parliamentary Inquiry on the Ethics Course,

I am opposing the Course because how can an ethics course show any absolutes. It can't because there are no absolutes, nothing is right or wrong if it is being taught by atheists. It is from the Bible where we get our moral truths, from God in the Old Testament and from Jesus in the New Testament. Jesus taught us to love our neighbour as ourselves. Our constitution and our laws come from a Christian perspective in Australia. This is where we get our rules for living - looking after one another, caring for the poor & marginalized. Countries with no Christian philosophy have no such caring of the poor! We need to know about our Christian heritage and where else than from SRE teachers who are now being trained well & are accountable!

Please give away the idea of having Ethics classes - all of our ethics come from the Bible.

yours sincerely,

(Mrs) Elizabeth M Noble
