

INQUIRY INTO SAME SEX MARRIAGE LAW IN NSW

---

Please do not change the law to include 'same sex marriage'. Marriage was/is introduced by God between a man and a woman as the foundation for a family. If people of the same sex wish to live together (as many do now) - it is something different and has been accepted - but it is not marriage, which is sanctified by God. God does not sanctify a homosexual union, therefore it is not a marriage. If same sex relationships are to be legalised, it needs another name that is a distinction from "marriage". God will not be mocked!

Sincerely - Helen Eastwood
