

INQUIRY INTO SAME SEX MARRIAGE LAW IN NSW

Name: Mr Stephen Dicks

Date received: 15/02/2013

- Marriage is already defined and there is no need to change it.
- Parliament has no right to change the definition of marriage.
- Marriage is natural, not unnatural.
- Attempts to redefine marriage are an insult to the institution of marriage.
- Marriage is primarily a religious issue. God has joined husband and wife. Attempts to redefine marriage are an insult to both God and those who are married.
- Show some respect to those who are already married not those who want to change it.
