

Submission
No 270

INQUIRY INTO SAME SEX MARRIAGE LAW IN NSW

Name: Name suppressed

Date received: 8/02/2013

Partially Confidential

I AM, YOU ARE. WE ARE AUSTRALIANS. Not equal, how can we be without the same rights. How can it be Australian to deny equality to some Australians.

Advance Australia Fair? What is fair about being elected by Australians to represent the majority view and yet vote against their right to marry who they choose to make a commitment to?

Why can't we go forward with the more enlightened view of countries who are changing their laws to encompass all their citizens?

I am very happily married (in a heterosexual relationship), I am 70 years old but cannot see what difference there is between my relationship and a homosexual one. I could choose to marry, and would hope that the NSW government would be enlightened enough to give that right to all.

Represent ALL Australians - PLEASE!